GASOLINE CAUSES BIG FIRE IN COSHOCTON LAUNDRY THIS

GIRLS ARE PANIC STRICKEN

Struggled in Mass Down Stairway,
Fighting Each Other to Make Their Escape.

Coshocton, O., Sept. 27.—George A. Spitt, aged 27, was killed, Mrs. D. R. Knodd, aged 30, was perhaps fatally burned, and five girls were badly injured, when a gasoline explosion started a fire that destroyed the three story building of the Eureka laundry today.

The explosion threw 50 girls, who were employed in the establishment, into a panic. Struggling in a mass down the main stairway, the girls fought with each other to escape, and several were trampled under foot.

The laundry building was destroyed by the flames, entailing a loss of $50,000. The explosion occurred in the dry cleaning apartment, where large tanks of gasoline were kept. Firemen helped many women from the building. They carried out Spitt, who had been horribly burned, but he died in the street in the arms of his rescuers.

CHARLES M. DYER GETS IN TROUBLE

SENDS LETTER ADDRESSED TO
TEDDY BOMBASTES FURIOSO.

Free Love, Free Labor and Free
Thought are Guiding Stars to Mr. Dyer.

Indianapolis, Sept. 27.—"Free Labor," "Free Love" and "Free Thought" are the guiding stars of the life of Charles M. Dyer, Cloverdale, editor of the Mirror, who until yesterday printed and distributed free of charge his little paper in which he voiced his sentiments so freely. Postoffice Inspector W. T. Fletcher caused his arrest on a charge of sending obscene matter through the mails.

Then some weeks ago Dyer addressed a letter in heavy, prominent type to "Teddy Bombastes Furioso, Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C.," and this caused a charge of sending defamatory and libelous matter through the mails. On bond of $500 Dyer was released by Commissioner McPherson at Bloomington yesterday to appear before the United States Grand Jury in November.

How Dyer became interested in Socialist and free love affairs members of his family seem not to know. A sister pleaded with him to give up his work and his advocacy of his "advanced" ideas, but he declared before Commissioner McPherson that he would "rot in jail before he would recant on the sex question." The Socialist views he seemed to be more willing to part with.

Dyer has been in trouble before. Once he was arrested for "peeping" and another time for assaulting an old soldier. He was helped out of both these scrapes by members of his family. Mr. Fletcher says that in his "literature" printed in the Mirror Dyer has advocated "the scientific improvement of the human race" by methods which may perhaps be termed "advanced," but which have caused him to get into trouble with the postal authorities.

The letter addressed to "Teddy Bombastes Furioso" has not been opened and the contents are unknown to the postoffice officials. The offense is in the address itself and the letter is being held as evidence. The letter was intercepted in the mails and referred to Inspector Fletcher for investigation.

ROOSEVELT ON STRIKE

President Will Receive Statements
From Strikers and Confer With Neill.

Washington, Sept. 27.—President Roosevelt said that he had consented to receive some documentary statements from the striking telegraphers, and that when these are in his hands he would undoubtedly call into consultation Commissioner of Labor Neill. Further than this he said that no arrangements had been made for any conference regarding the strike.

TO DRIVE PROBE DEEP INTO HEART OF STANDARD OIL

OF OIL CITY, PA., TO GIVE TESTIMONY.

TRAINER IS ALSO TO APPEAR

Interest in Pipe Lines Increased
Since 400 Per Cent Profit Story Came Out.

New York, Sept. 27.—Another attack was made this afternoon upon the most carefully guarded period of the existence of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, the years from 1892 until 1899, when it was supposed to be in course of liquidation, by Frank B. Kellogg, counsel for the government.

Charles T. White, assistant secretary of various Standard companies, was placed on the stand and ordered to produce the books showing how and by whom the stock was voted at the annual meetings from 1892 until 1900. Kellogg wants proof that the trust was continued in defiance of the court order of 1892 and when reorganized in 1899 was changed in outward and visible appearance only. White said such books were in his possession and he promised to produce them.

New York, Sept. 27.—That Frank B. Kellogg intends to drive his probe deep into the very heart of the complicated and mysterious inner workings of the monster Standard Oil company of New Jersey, became more apparent today when it was learned that he had summoned Joseph Seep of Oil City, Pa., and P. S. Trainer to appear here in the suit of the government to dissolve the parent corporation.

Seep is in charge of the Seep agency, which buys what crude oil purchased by the Standard of New Jersey from any source.

After Seep has bought it the oil passes into the "ownership," whose name appears as the shipper on all the books of the pipe line companies. Kellogg is anxious to know all about these little peculiarities of the Standard system and will seek to force the witnesses to tell why any such measures are taken. He has become greatly interested in the pipe lines since he learned that the Indiana pipe line made 400 per cent profit in 1903, on its capital of $1,000,000.

Findlay, Sept. 27.—The Standard Oil fired its first gun today in an attempt to block the efforts of the independent dealers to deal the parent company, its seven subsidiaries and John D. Rockefeller, a death blow in Ohio. The defendants have entered a motion to have the service quashed and to strike out certain allegations in the petition.

MERCHANT TAILORS SAY THIS IS THE OPEN SEASON FOR MEN'S CLOTHES.

Dress Suits of Green Are the Proper
Caper, But Will They Be Worn?

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Glad tidings! This is the open season in men's clothes. The merchant tailors have so decreed it. Almost anything goes this fall in masculine garments, if it suits the wearer's complexion and build. This much was learned at the exhibit at the Wellington Hotel, which consisted of high art products of local members of the Mercantile Tailors' Protective Association.

A mild controversy over the propriety of wearing a green evening dress suit and a movement among knights of the tape to smother dress radicalism, are interesting features of the present display. Here is the proper thing, as given out by one in authority:

Business Dress—Three-button sack of medium length, wide and deep lapels; double breasted permissible; also the frock coat suit.

Day Dress—The frock coat suit, including two-button fancy vests in tans and greens. This outfit is to be much affected by professional men.

Evening Dress—Coats of dark green unfinished worsted, the opening in the form of curved "V," waistcoats of fine gray silk, single breasted. Dinner coats, plum color and dark blue silk to the edges.

Overcoats—Frock overcoats of black and gray and Chesterfields of

As to colors, brown is prevailing at present, its shades varying from walnut to London smoke, with elephant colors especially popular. Concerning the last item large men are assured by the tailors that it will not make them look pachydermic.

FIRST CLEAN-UP AT LICKING MINE SHOWS UP WELL

AMALGAM CONTAINING GOLD IS SENT TO STATE CHEMIST AT COLUMBUS.

NEW COMPANY ORGANIZED

Land Here Said to be Better Than
That in Operation in State of Tennessee.

Things are looking bright for the Licking Gold Mining company of this city. For some days the company has had a force of seven men engaged in ditching and making the preliminary arrangements to start up the work of mining for the gold which is known to be on the property, on a large scale. At different periods during this time the workmen would run quantities of the pay dirt through the machine, and it is estimated that about three days were consumed in washing the gravel. On Wednesday of this week the first clean-up was made and a mass of amalgam, estimated to contain fifty dollars worth of gold, was secured. Mr. Fred Lisey has sent the amalgam to Mr. Moxworth, the state chemist at Columbus, to be cleaned and purified, and his statement will be published in a few days. It is now the purpose of the company to begin extensive operations and all are confident of good results.

Messrs. E. J. Miller and J. E. Stolz, of Columbus, promoters of the new company, recently organized in Columbus to mine gold in this territory, and who are now operating a mine in Tennessee were here several days ago, and visited their property as well as that of the Licking Mining company. They washed out considerable dirt in pans, taken from numerous prospects on the property, and secured colors in Pittsburg, Sept. 27.—According to claims given out at the Pennsylvania offices here this afternoon, no one was killed in the Duncannon wreck, and only six injured, of whom but one will die.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 27.—A hurried call for physicians and a wrecking train has reached the offices of the Pennsylvania railroad from Duncannon, where a passenger train has been wrecked and a half dozen persons killed and several injured. All trains are down. The train wrecked was a local which left here yesterday at 10:10 today.

Baltimore, Sept. 27.—At the office of the superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad it was stated this afternoon that the death list would reach about 15.

LAWYERS SEEK ADMISSION OF CONTRACT COPY

A JOINT NOTE OF SWEET AND STEUNENBERG TO FIGURE IN BORAH TRIAL.

LAND ACQUIRED BY FRAUD

This is Contention of Government in Action Now in Progress at Boise, Idaho.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 27.—Counsel for the government in the trial of Senator Wm. E. Borah for alleged complicity in the Idaho land frauds today sought to have admitted as evidence a contract charged to have been entered into between former Governor in February, 1902, to acquire Boise Valley lands. The government will follow the introduction of this instrument by introducing a joint note drawn on a local bank for $47,500, and executed by Sweet and Steunenberg's endeavor to interest him in the land project. Campbell, it is said, was introduced to Governor Albert Palmer and Palmer gave him a letter to Barber and Moon who are named as co-defendants.

Senator Addison Foster, of Washington, has arrived here in company with A. B. Campbell, the Spokane millionaire, and Campbell was to be called late today to tell of Steunenberg's endeavor to interest him in the land projects. Campbell, it is said, was introduced to Governor Albert Palmer and Palmer gave him a letter to Barber and Moon who are named as co-defendants.

This was the first real attempt on the part of the prosecution to prove Steunenberg's connection, and it was met with strong opposition on the part of the defense, as Borah is fighting to clear the name of his friend, Steunenberg, as well as his own.

District Attorney Ruick was called before the special grand jury yesterday to explain the conduct of the Borah grand jury.

Wealthy and Aged Resident Kills His Second Wife After Quarrel and Takes Poison.

Elgin, Ill., Sept. 27.—Cyrus Baldwin, aged 85 years, one of the oldest and wealthiest residents of Kane county, confessed wife murderer, committed suicide Thursday at his home in Hampshire, Ill., by eating Paris green. Twelve hours previously he had murdered his wife by smothering her skull with a hammer.

Mrs. Baldwin was 83 years old. Her body was discovered by Mrs. Jane Baldwin, a sister-in-law. Later Baldwin, in a remarkable confession made to Coroner Norton of Kane county, declared he murdered his wife after a quarrel. He made an attempt to end his life shortly after the discovery of the murder, but was unsuccessful.

Baldwin was a resident of Kane county for nearly 60 years, and was at one time a prominent local politician. The woman he murdered was his second wife.

It is declared the aged couple frequently quarreled. Recently they sold their old homestead in Hampshire and that they had violent quarrels over the question of moving to another place.

MR. ROOSEVELT WILL STUDY 30 TERM PROBLEM

INTENDS TO FIND HOW STRONG
TAFT'S BOOM IS IN STATES
HE'LL VISIT.

MAY ANNOUNCE HIMSELF

President's Mail Flooded With Letters
Asking Him to Be a Candidate.

Washington, Sept. 27.—When President Roosevelt returns from his coming middle west and southern trip, his friends believe he will have reached a definite decision on the third term question. By the time he leaves Memphis on October 4, he will know just how strong the Taft sentiment is in the states through which he has traveled and will be able to make a good estimate of the war secretary's value as a presidential candidate. If he finds the Taft boom strong, and showing the indications of a healthy growth, he will probably continue to throw all his strength to the Ohioan. If, on the contrary, he sees indications of a collapse of the Taft boom, with a consequent triumph of the "reactionary" forces, the President may be expected to announce his own candidacy for a third term. If he does decide to run again, the President will come into the open and tell the public just why he has changed his mind on the third term proposition. Meanwhile, the President's mail is flooded with letters asking him to be a candidate and nearly every visitor makes the same request.

Nearly all of these letters are answered by Secretary Loom with the statement that the President has not changed his mind. To personal visitors the President insists that he does not expect to be a candidate, but intimates that if the enemies of his policies prove strong enough to name his successor, he may feel obliged to again be the Republican standard bearer. On his coming trip, therefore, the President will feel the pulse of the public. In the last few months the President has made two trips to the Jamestown exposition and one to New England, besides having talked to hundreds of visitors and he believes the coming trip will put him in touch with the states east of the Mississippi. As to the west, there is no question but that Roosevelt controls it absolutely. In addition, during the coming western trip, the President will make speeches with a definite purpose. His ripest ideas on federal regulation of trusts and railroads will be aired. He will tell Congress just what he expects it to do at the coming session.

William Muldoon, Professor of Regularity

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE BUILDER UP OF RUNDOWN HUMANITY AND HIS SYSTEM.

Practical Preacher of All Round Temperance Who Has Been Muldooning Secretary Root Was the World's Champion Greco-Roman Wrestler—Bitter Hater of Whisky and Cigarettes—His Guests, From Statesmen Down, Must Obey His Rules or They Are Shown the Farm Gate.

By ROBERTUS LOVE. ARE you run down? Do you feel dopy? Does the dark brown taste adhere to the roof of your mouth? Do you rage and imagine vain things? Well, if so you are not a heathen. You are simply an overcivilized person. The trouble with you is that you have been pursuing too closely the golden calf, which can run faster than a bay steer, or you have been working too hard for a living. You have been dissipating. Perhaps the dissipation consists of too much work and the consequent worry. Perhaps it consists of cocktails, cigarettes or even champagne. Perhaps you are what teetotalers call "temperate," but you have been eating too heartily or partaking of food that is altogether too rich for your blood. No matter. Whether you have brain fog, mental stagnation, intellectual torpidity, nervous prostration or just a damned liver—damned up by a clogged system that cries for exercise and relief—there is one thing that you must have done to you before you get over the trouble. You must be muldooned. Muldooning is the latest cure, even later than Christian Science. It is many centuries later than medicine. Perhaps it wasn't needed when men lived the simple life, before the days of pretty as the speckled sides of June apples, his shoulders looking as solid as his limbs, so lithe and active." Now the professor is past sixty, perhaps a little older than his present distinguished patient, Secretary Root, who is sixty-two and a half. Yet Muldoon still looks as pretty as the bloomy side of an Elberta peach, and he can punch the lug, box, wrestle, ride, walk or work to the limit of endurance for any one of his patients, even the youngest and strongest of them.

Genesis of Muldooning.

In his early manhood Muldoon was a cavalry officer. He served during the civil war and in the regular army after the war. It is said that he conceived his theory of building up rundown humanity in the service on the plains, when gangs of recruits were sent to him to be made into troopers. Many of the men who enlisted in those days just after the war were sorry specimens of humanity. Most of the good able-bodied fellows had had too much of war. It was difficult to get recruits. But when a man was starving he was willing to enlist, and Muldoon got many of that sort. He put them through a regular course of training—in eating, sleeping and working. They made new soldiers. That gave Muldoon his idea, which he put into practice a quarter of a century later. It was the genesis of muldooning.

Those who go to Muldoon's place go to him who must be obeyed. The professor is the commanding officer. He looks over the man and tells him precisely what to eat, how much and when. He prescribes just so many hours' sleep, usually about nine. The recruit must get up when the commander knocks on his door, about 6 o'clock. When Muldoon says work he must work, whether it be some form of play exercise or real labor in the fields. If a man needs something in his diet to make him sleep better, Muldoon feeds him lettuce, but more often he feeds him work.

Once a man went to Muldoon's who was troubled with sleeplessness. At "taps," 9 o'clock, every light is supposed to be put out. The professor noticed some time later a light in this man's room. He was reading. "All right, my man," muttered the professor.

It wasn't all right. It was all wrong. That was merely the Muldoon way of keeping to himself what he intended doing next day to the derelict one. He simply put on the patient a considerable amount of extra work, saying nothing as to having caught him with his light burning after taps. That night Mr. Patient excused himself shortly after supper and retired. He slept soundly until the professor rapped on his door next morning at 6.

Medicine Ball Drill.

Mr. Muldoon has invented one form of exercise which looks amusing to the outsider, but it is said to be the most efficacious of all. It is the medicine ball drill. The professor conceived the idea of making some balls ranging from six to thirty inches in diameter. The men at the farm divide into sides every morning and proceed to pass the medicine balls. No man knows at any moment the size or weight of the ball he is going to get tossed at him. It may be a little fellow or the biggest in the series. This keeps him mentally alert as well as physically.

Any system that trains the body and neglects the mind, according to Muldoon, is false to the first principles of physical culture. The ability to see, think and act at one and the same time is the secret of success in athletics as well as in life, says this master muldooner of men.

When Secretary Root went to Muldoon's some weeks ago he was in a condition which gave his friends much alarm. He had been working too hard. The secretaryship of state is no sinecure. Mr. Root was run down. For some time he had been thinking of going to Muldoon's, and his friends advised him to do so.

"Mr. Root feels like a new man already," said the professor a few days ago, and the secretary of state was seen to leap into the Muldoon wagon at the postoffice without touching the step, which went to prove that he was physically active.

The professor will not let Secretary Root work at official business more than two hours a day, and some days he is said to limit the premier to half an hour, according to his condition.

Horseback riding is prescribed daily, winter or summer, rain or shine, and a daily walk of four miles or so is in the curriculum of this school for regularity. The Muldoon guests, from statesmen down, are simply pupils under the professor, who is quite a pugnacious man, by the way, and will brook no interference with his authority. If a secretary of state or anybody else declines to obey the rules, what happens? Well, the head master is not authorized to go to the woods, cut a birch switch and apply it. But he shows the farm gate to the obstreperous one.

Every Sunday morning the guests are weighed. The professor also steps on the scales, for he wants to see whether he is keeping himself in condition. Any man who has gained flesh when he should have lost it, or vice versa, gets a change of treatment the following week. The change is largely in the matter of exercise or work, whether it be boxing, medicine balling, riding or hoeing potatoes.

It may be that the personality of Professor Muldoon counts for much in the muldooning of men. He exacts systematic obedience or he will have nothing to do with a man. But a course in amateur muldooning is open to anybody, anywhere, at any time. If all of us were muldooned now and then, it would mean money in our pockets.

And there are no pockets in shrouds.

PITIFUL CASE OF DEPRAVITY

UNFORTUNATE IS MATRIMONIAL CAREER OF FRAIL MRS. SHAFER.

Woman Failed to Appear Against Parker, So He Was Fined on Minor Charge.

A pitiful case of depravity, destitution and drunkenness was aired in police court Friday morning, when Sam Parker, colored, was arraigned for being drunk and entering the home of Mrs. Lena Shafer at 82 Pataskala street, Wednesday evening.

Parker has been a regular visitor in police court, but his full history never came to light until within the past week when unfortunately for him, two women, one white and the other colored, claimed him as their husband. Though Parker agrees with the colored woman that he is legally married to her, he is said to have been living at different times with Mrs. Shafer, who is said to have come from an excellent family at Barnesville, and who claims he is the father of one of her children.

Mrs. Shafer a frail little woman, has had an unfortunate matrimonial career, and though twice married, both husbands deserted her. One is divorced from her and the other is in the west, she doesn't know where. Parker has known her for some time, and though his treatment of her has been decidedly brutal, yet she sought to defend him, even after she had him arrested, by saying he never abused her only when he was drinking.

Sunday night, Parker in company with a friend, came to her house and struck and choked her when she asked for a little money with which to buy fuel, and a little milk for her baby. She claims that he did give her a dollar, and later demanded it back, and when she refused he called her vile names and choked her until she could hardly speak.

When she staggered against the door Parker fled the house, but her screams had attracted the attention of neighbors who chased him and caught and held him until the arrival of the patrol wagon. He was arraigned in police court Monday morning on the charge of being drunk and beating his wife. Mrs. Shafer failed to appear and he was fined on the intoxic charge.

Wednesday afternoon neighbors saw Parker enter the Shafer home, and thinking things were not right notified police headquarters. The patrol with Wagonman Brown and Officer Zergibel drove to the place, and after a thorough search of the premises found Parker lying dead drunk in an upstairs closet. The house looked as though it had been struck by a cyclone. Curtains were torn down, bed clothes were lying on the stairs and the contents of Mrs. Shafer's trunk had been thoroughly inspected.

Parker was hauled to jail and would have been charged with being drunk and entering a house, but Mrs. Shafer had sworn out a peace warrant against him. The reading of this warrant and a few questions soon brought out the facts of as thorough a case of depravity as has been heard in police court for many a day.

J. T. Oldaker, a resident of Edin township, but who is visiting at the home of his daughter on Pataskala street, testified that after the trouble Sunday night, he examined Mrs. Shafer's throat and found the print of fingers. Several other witnesses were called who told the story of the trouble to the court.

After hearing the case in all the details of a foolish infatuation of a woman of one race for a man of another, the mayor bound Parker over to the grand jury, his bond being fixed in the sum of $100.

John Black, the boy who was arrested charged with stealing several articles from the barber shop of Leroy Garrison several weeks ago, and who was arrested in Cambridge last week, was dismissed from custody Thursday evening, his mother from Pittsburgh appearing, and squaring things up for $19.50.

Steve Benedick, Hungarian, who runs a boarding house on Beech street, was arrested Thursday night by Wagonman Brooks on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. Enzi Nemet, one of the boarders, charging him with stealing $30 out of her pocketbook. Through an interpreter Benedick pleaded not guilty and his hearing was set for next Tuesday. Bond in the sum of $50 that was required will probably be furnished.

Robert Moore, who was arrested in the free for all fight in the West End earlier in the week, was brought in police court Friday, and a warrant sworn to by Mrs. Ida Stamm, one of the parties in the fight, was read to him. He pleaded not guilty and was released on $50 bail furnished by his sister-in-law. The curtain will ring down on the case next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Frank Huston who was locked up on his own request, Thursday afternoon, was fined $5 and costs.

Mrs. Carpenter, an artist, insists on blighting her talents with strong drink, and every once in a while is arrested. Yesterday she chose the Adams Express office as a good place for a snooze, and was arrested by Wagonman Brown. Five and costs and the county jail.

Thomas Brown from Crooksville, was arrested at 11:15 last night by Officers Abbott and Driscoll. He was drunk and asleep. Five and costs.

WILLIAM MULDOON AND TWO OF HIS POSES AS A GRECO-ROMAN WRESTLER.

subways and trolley cars and whiz wagons and stock tickers and daily papers and the tending of noisy machines in noisome factories. But in these overcivilized days a severe course in muldooning becomes necessary now and then for many men.

And what is muldooning? Well, that reminds me. An old farmer in Arkansas once remarked to a youngster:

"Young feller, to be well an' stout an' peart you must eat reg'lar, sleep reg'lar an' work reg'lar, but," he added after a pause, "not too blamed reg'lar as to the work."

And 'hat is the basement, superstructure, roof and skylight of muldooning—the whole structure of the science of re-toring mental and physical faculties which have fallen into bad habits and gone awry. It is the science of regularity without intemperance in eating, sleeping or working.

Luxury All Can Have.

Elihu Root just now is being muldooned. Mr. Root is the American premier, the secretary of state, with only two men in official rank between him and the presidency of the United States. He believes in muldooning, and that should be a good recommendation for the system. You need not go to William Muldoon's place, as Secretary Root has done, to be muldooned. You can muldoon yourself wherever you are. Mr. Muldoon has room for only a few men at a time, and it costs much money to be muldooned by Muldoon, the original muldooner. Consequently only the rich can afford to muldoon at Muldoon's. But this luxury is yours for the taking at your own home, for Mr. Muldoon hasn't patented his system.

Muldoon's place is a farm about two miles from White Plains, N. Y. There is a commodious house, with shower baths and a gymnasium. There are broad acres for walking over and long roads for riding along, and there are must obey the rules absolutely or be chucked out, which would mean his probable defeat at the hands of Kilrain and the desertion of the friends who were trying to keep him in the championship. John L. trained under Muldoon and found Kilrain easy. Regularity did it.

Kid McCoy and other pugilists were put in shape by Muldoon to their advantage. But prize fighters have formed only a small percentage of Muldoon's list of patients. Rich New York clubmen and society men, Wall streeters and professional giants have gone to Muldoon's with their livers damaged up and their tongues wearing overcoats in August. They have undergone the six weeks or so of muldooning and come away feeling like new men.

There are two things which Professor Muldoon hates as a chicken hates a rattlesnake. Whisky is one and cigarettes the other. No whisky gets past his threshold, and a cigarette can't come within smelling distance. Muldoon was walking on Eighth avenue, in New York, one day when four boys, all smoking cigarettes, passed by.

"Look at those boys," he remarked to a friend. "That is an evil that ought to be suppressed. Cigarettes are the bane of a boy's life. Give me a lad who knows nothing of them or the taste of beer and liquor, and I'll give you the making of a big, strong and healthy man. I take a great interest in little chaps and do everything I can to encourage their ideas of sport. I would like to teach them all to stay away from vice and to learn to box, wrestle, run and jump."

On another occasion a young man smoking a cigarette approached Muldoon to get data for a life of John L. "If you'll stop sucking that thing and throw it away, I'll talk to you," said the professor.

That was some years ago, and Mr. Muldoon was described as "a handsome blue eyed man, with cheeks as

Danderine

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR

AND WE CAN PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor. That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

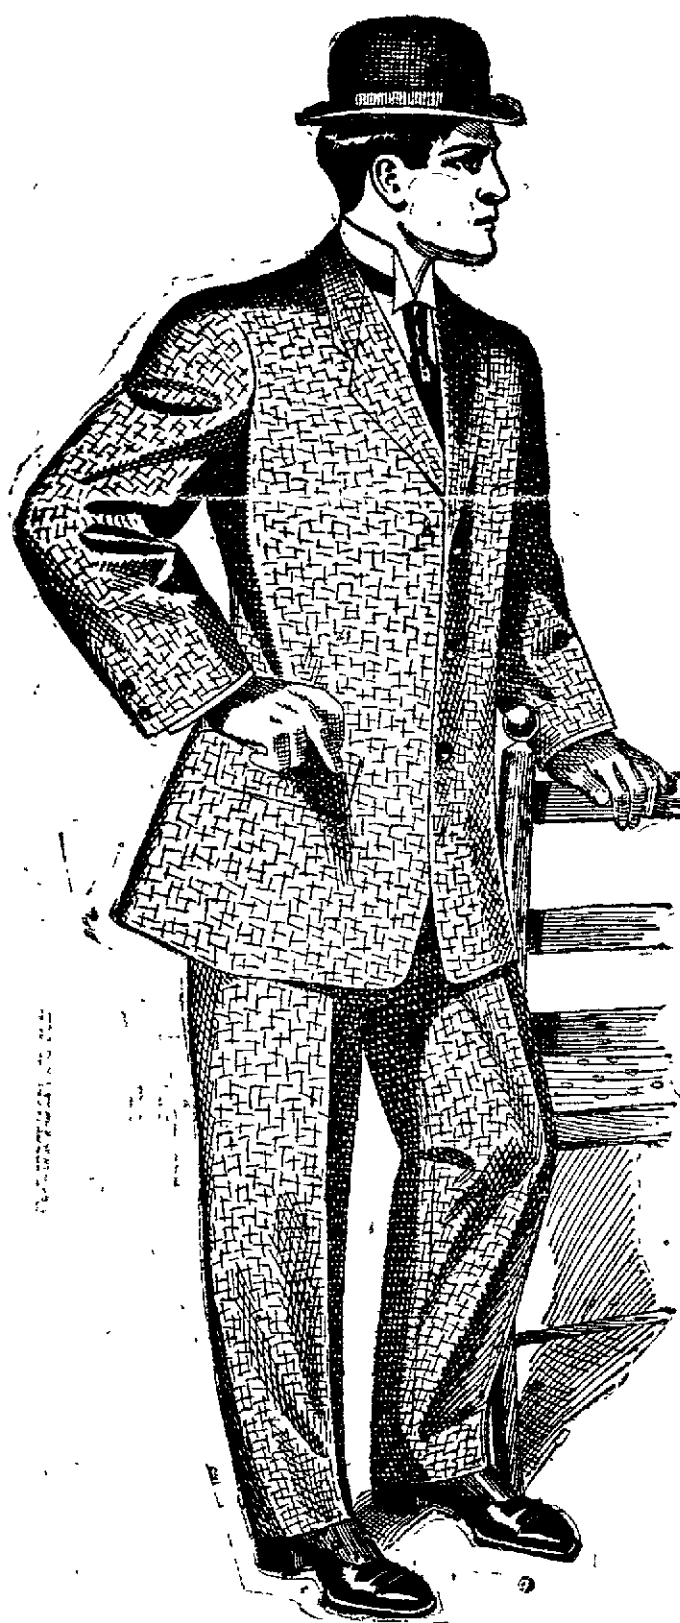

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1905. Dear Doctor Knowlton:— You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid. I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it. Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation. Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

What We Mean by Suit Quality

Last season when the new store opened business we made the statement that our values meant more than other stores' values, that a suit bought at Meridith's always represented a little better value for the money than the same price bought elsewhere.

We made good with our promise, and this season we repeat our promise of last year.

With the coming of our new stock of suits, we are prepared to give our customers more style, more quality and more all around goodness for the money spent than any other store can.

We want you to make us make good.

Stylish new fall suits are ready now.

TIRED AND SICK YET MUST WORK

"Man may work from sun to sun but woman's work is never done." In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo and often suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, comes as a blessing. When the spirits are depressed, the head and back aches, there are dragging-down pains, nervousness, sleeplessness, and reluctance to go anywhere, these are only symptoms which unless heeded, are soon followed by the worst forms of Female Complaints.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

keeps the feminine organism in a strong and healthy condition. It cures Inflammation, Ulceration, displacements, and organic troubles. In preparing for child-birth and to carry women safely through the Change of Life it is most efficient.

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—For a long time I suffered from female troubles and had all kinds of aches and pains in the lower part of back and sides. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following the advice which you gave me I feel like a new woman and I cannot praise your medicine too highly."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

LETTERS FROM ADVOCATE READERS

ASK THE MANAGER.

To The Advocate—Kindly let me register a "kick." I have a telephone in my house and its on a party line. Yesterday afternoon my wife wanted to send an important message over the 'phone, but she found the line busy. Going a little later to the telephone she still found it busy and then she heard a phonograph. By listening a few minutes she found that one of the other parties on the line was giving a phonograph concert for the benefit of a friend in another part of town. This is all right on independent lines, perhaps, but not on party lines. What do you think?

PARTY LINE.

IT LOOKS LIKE IT.

To The Advocate—What about that new hotel? Instead of excavation for a foundation I see a big billboard going up back of the Warden is the construction to be postponed?

CARD OF THANKS.

To the Advocate—After seeing many cards of thanks in The Advocate, I am constrained to send you this one which I read in an Ohio paper today:

"I did not issue a card of thanks when my husband died, but now that three months are passed, I wish to have one printed. I desire to thank, not those friends who came in when he lay dead in the house, and bustled about arranging the chairs and flowers and answering the door, but those who came in since the parade was over, and those who have sat with me in my loneliness when they might be with happier people elsewhere. And I desire to state that few of those busy before the parade have been to see me since it was over. I am no longer in the limelight, and am forgotten."

Free Children's Matinee, Saturday, at Wonderland.

Mrs. Rena A. Howard has commenced suit in Probate court for divorce from William H. Howard. The parties were married over a score of years ago, and they have four children living, the oldest of whom is 17 years old. For cause of action the plaintiff says that on September 17, her husband assaulted and knocked her down and threatened to kill her. She says that on another occasion her husband assaulted and threatened to kill her, at the same time having a loaded revolver in his hand and shot the same, that she succeeded in making her escape from him and remained over night at the house of a neighbor. She asks for divorce, custody of the children and reasonable alimony.

COUNTY FAIR OPENS NEXT WEEK

SECRETARY J. M. FARMER SAYS
FINE STRING OF HORSES WILL BE THERE.

Entries in Sheep and Swine Department Unusually Large—Fair to be a Hummer.

Secretary Farmer of the Licking County Board of Agriculture, is in Bowling Green today inspecting the Wood county fair. He was in Marion on Thursday where he was the guest of the board of Marion county.

His object in visiting the counties of the state is to get a good idea of the other fairs and see what is new and novel in that line. Also to get next to the horsemen and secure their attendance at the Licking Co. Fair, which commences here on next Tuesday, October 1st.

Mr. Farmer notified his assistants by wire that the outlook for a good string of horses here was never better. He has now promises that will warrant the assertion that the fair this year will be graced by the largest strings of horses which have ever been here.

Locally the management is pleased with the way the entries are coming in especially in the departments of swine and sheep. Never in the history of the society have the entries been so heavy at the time ahead of fair week. Both industries have been on the increase in the last few years, probably on account of the high prices prevailing on pork, wool and mutton.

In the fine lines of both breeds there has been more and more produced each year and the strains have been improved. All of which will be amply in evidence in this year's fair.

ANOTHER CHALLENGE

May Be Issued by Sir Thomas Lipton. Yachtsmen Disappointed.

London, Sept. 27.—Sir Thomas Lipton was interviewed after he had learned the reasons why his challenge to race for the Americas cup had been declined by the New York Yacht club, and spoke as follows: "I still have plenty of time to issue another challenge, but all depends upon what I am advised to do. Mr. Fife is coming especially to consult with me on the situation. I know the New York Yacht club feels its responsibility and I am quite willing to abide by its decision, as the club certainly understands its business better than any one else. I can not help hoping that the existing difficulty may be overcome and that a race will occur in 1908. I will do everything in my power that is reasonable to meet the wishes of our American friends. I am willing to consider most favorably the idea of challenging with a 90-foot boat."

Yachtsmen Disappointed.

Dublin, Sept. 27.—There is great disappointment in yachting circles over the refusal of the New York Yacht club to accept the challenge of Sir Thomas Lipton to a contest for the Americas cup. The authorities of the Royal Irish Yacht club naturally are reticent as to whether the conditions of the challenge will be abandoned or not, but among yachtsmen the opinion is generally held that the matter is ended.

Stunning Display of New Fall Styles at the Annual Fashion Show

If you were not here today, come tomorrow

Radical departures and unique style innovations have made this Autumn Fashion Show a noteworthy social event.

Rare Display of Autumn Suits

Never before such a showing of beautiful Fall Suits. Suits that bring you at once into close touch with the great fashion centers. An exhibition that indeed stamps this store as without a peer in Women's and Misses Garments. The season's most beautiful creations in lavish profusion—smart, nobby suits that show a refined elegance in every fold.

- The New Fluffy Ruffles Suits
New French Walking Suits
The New Mammoth Suits
- The Newest Cutaway Suits
Women's Prince Albert Suits
Women's New Frock Suits

And all authoritative models for Autumn, 1907.

See the New Fluffy Ruffles Skirts

You'll be taken with them instantly, for they are the hit of New York and deserve to be. We're the first Newark store to show them. See them at the opening tomorrow.

Lavish Showing of New Fall Dress Fabrics

Foreign and domestic loom gems in complete array. The whole stock is a gleam with beauty, quality and the best accepted styles for Autumn wear. Many new things among them to be shown tomorrow for the first time.

A Delightful Array of Fall Trimmings

The truly beautiful is personified in our splendid showing of Imported Dress Trimmings, fitting garnitures for the present dress fabrics. A profusion of new trimming ideas, all exclusive, awaits femininity here.

Prettiest, Daintiest Fall Laces

The work of the great makers of Continental Europe. Even if you are not ready to buy now, it is worth taking time to look through our lace department to see what is "it" for the new season.

Our Right to Your Silk Patronage

Was never more strongly emphasized than by our splendid showing of Autumn Silks. Beautiful shimmering weaves, showing the gradual return to favor of the satin finish fabrics. Not one line that isn't a winner—not one that isn't exclusive and that doesn't bear the ear-mark of authority.

A Winning Collection of Fall Gloves

A visit to the leading style centers could reveal no more exclusive, no more beautiful collection of French and Italian Gloves than is shown in our matchless Glove Department. Needless to mention that we handle only the best makes.

Your inspection is politely requested. Welcome.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MISS GERTRUDE STARE.
Miss Gertrude Celestine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stare, died at her home on North Fifth street Friday morning, after a five months illness with rheumatism. She was born on June 28, 1890, being 17 years and three months old at the time of her death. The funeral will probably take place at 9 o'clock Monday morning from St. Francis de Sales church.

The death of this young woman casts a shadow of gloom over the community in which she lived and dims the eyes of all who knew her. Miss Stare bore her illness with fortitude and was prepared for the passage from Life to Death. Her memory will ever remain with the many friends who knew her.

MRS. HARRY PHILBROOK.
Mrs. Harry Philbrook died at the Protestant hospital Thursday in Columbus, as the result of an operation which was performed Monday. The attack, which resulted in her death, was a very sudden and a very sad one. Her vitality was at so low an ebb that she did not rally from the operation properly and a complication developed. She passed away after everything had been done for her that was possible.

Mrs. Philbrook was 40 years of age. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Harry Philbrook, a well known traveling man, and one son, Byron Philbrook, aged about 20 years. The family has been residing in Columbus for the past few years, having formerly lived in Licking county.

The funeral will be held at the Bryden Road M. E. church.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. W. T. MIX FRIDAY
Heart Trouble Caused Death While He Slept at Mrs. Otto Ramey's Home.

When the family of W. T. Mix entered his room at 6 o'clock Friday morning, they found him dead in his bed, death evidently coming to him while he slept. Heart trouble and dropsy is supposed to have been the cause of his sudden demise.

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF MALARIA

We breathe the germs and microbes of Malaria into our lungs and they are soon absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the system. Then we begin to feel "out of sorts," no appetite or energy, dull headaches, a tired, sleepy feeling, and often "dumb chills" and slight fever show that this insidious disease is affecting the entire health. As the trouble progresses and the blood becomes more deeply polluted, boils and abscesses, sores and ulcers or brown spots appear on the skin. As Malaria is a blood disease, to cure it requires a blood purifier, and S. S. S. is recognized as the best of blood purifiers. S. S. S. destroys the germs with which the blood is loaded and rides the system of Malaria. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease in the right way by removing every vestige of the cause and building up the blood from a weak, watery, germ-infected stream to a rich, healthful fluid, nourishing and vitalizing every part of the body by its purity. S. S. S. tones up every part of the system by its fine tonic effects, and being made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks it is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

HENRY RIGGLEMAN DIES OF INJURIES SUSTAINED SEPT. 11
Widow and Seven Children Survive—Funeral Arrangements Not as Yet Completed.

Henry Riggleman, 67 years old, who was struck by a B. and O. yard engine and a cut of cars while crossing the tracks at Locust street September 11th, and who sustained a fractured right hip and other injuries from the accident, died at 11 o'clock Thursday night at his home, 172 Grant street.

He is survived by his wife and seven children, Mrs. Alice Richardson of Tennessee, Mrs. Mattie McGulland, Charles, Rilla, Robert, Bessie and Nellie, all residents of Newark. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

FINDLAY MAN ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF ATTEMPTED BRIBERY.

Used Senators' Names—Fatal Fray—McMillen Gets Three Years—Score Are Poisoned.

Findlay, O., Sept. 27.—L. B. Williamson was arrested on an indictment charging him with attempting to bribe Charles Thompson, a juror in the case of the state of Ohio against the Standard Oil company, which was tried in the court of common pleas here last June before Judge A. W. Duncan. He was held to court by Judge Duncan. Mrs. Chase Thompson said that Williamson approached her and asked her to persuade her husband to disagree and hang the jury in the Standard Oil case. The final vote of the jury was 8 to 4, the last opposing conviction. Williamson in a statement, made in the county jail, admitted that he had made the proposition to Mrs. Thompson, saying that her husband would be paid from $500 to $1000 should the jury disagree.

To Die on Sabbath.
Columbus, O., Sept. 27.—Unless the courts or governor grant a stay, an electrocution will take place at the Ohio penitentiary on a Sunday night, or just after Sunday midnight. John Soloy, an Italian, is condemned to death in the chair Oct. 7 for having taken the life of his sweetheart in Cleveland. So far as could be learned from officials at the penitentiary, this is the first electrocution in the history of the institution set for Sunday night. Oct. 7 falls on Monday, but executions take place before daylight on the day set. Hence Soloy, unless reprieved, will be executed just after Sunday midnight, and the Sabbath will be marked by preparations for the event.

Used Ohio Senators' Names.
New York, Sept. 27.—Charged with being involved in a get-rich-quick scheme by which many farmers in the northwest were defrauded of more than $1,000,000, Francis L. Holliday and John G. Laurance were arrested and held for extradition to Minneapolis. Alleged letters of recommendation from William Jennings Bryan, Senators Foraker, Allison and Dick and the late General Joseph B. Wheeler, were found on the men when arrested.

Fatal Fray.
Wooster, O., Sept. 27.—Abel Joliff, 68, a threshingman, was fatally injured by Bert Miller, 50, a laborer. Joliff owned the threshing outfit and climbed onto a load of straw to show Miller how the straw should be loaded. The men became engaged in a fight and Miller struck Joliff over the head several times with the handle of a pitchfork, fracturing Joliff's skull. During the fight the men fell from the wagon. Miller made his escape.

Fear Subterranean Lake.
Creston, O., Sept. 27.—With the cave-in of more than 100 feet of Coulter street, one of the chief thoroughfares of this town, the townspeople living in the street and its immediate vicinity have fled and scores of citizens whose homes are in other sections of the town are preparing to leave, fearing the sinking of the entire town into the subterranean lake, whose existence under this section has long been suspected.

Three Years For McMillen.
Springfield, O., Sept. 27.—James C. McMillen pleaded guilty to embezzling funds from the Building and Loan Association of South Charleston and he was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Nine indictments against him were nolle. McMillen came home from Mexico to see his wife and was caught at Cedarville several months ago.

Score Poisoned.
Akron, Sept. 27.—Three persons Mrs. Mark Goudy, proprietress of a boarding house, Oliver Bott and William Goudy, all of Barborton, are in a serious condition from eating toast-stools for mushrooms, gathered by Goudy and Bott and served by Mrs. Goudy to herself and boarders. Twenty others who partook are violently ill.

Succeeds Crouse.
Columbus, O., Sept. 27.—Governor Harris has appointed Hon. Oscar Sheppard of Preble county as a member of the board of trustees of the State School for the Blind, to succeed H. P. Crouse, recently resigned. Mr. Sheppard was president pro tem of the senate in the Seventy-fifth general assembly.

Games Today.

Games Tomorrow.

Youngstown at Sharon.
Akron at New Castle.

The O. and P. season is fast drawing to a close. Akron and New Castle will play a double header today. Youngstown and Sharon play tomorrow and Newark and Lancaster will close the season at Lancaster Sunday.

The season has been a profitable one to the Newark club and the fans have patronized the games more liberally than any other city in the circuit. In return the Molders have given them exhibitions which rank favorably with that put on by the American association. They have played 69 games on the home grounds and won 56 of them. This is surely a record of which we may all feel proud.

The wonderful race which the three leaders of the league have been putting up has attracted the attention of random all over the country. The baseball team of 1907 has been the means of giving our beautiful little city the best advertising it has ever received. It has been the medium through which Newark has become known from coast to coast and from Maine to the Gulf.

Bob Berryhill, the Molders' astute manager, is entitled to the greatest of praise for the creditable manner in which he has handled the team. Handicapped with a crippled leg, he brought them from the bottom to the top and gave as magnificent an exhibition of wonderful ball playing as ever occurred in any league. Had he followed the example set by East, Wright, McVey or Patterson we would not be fighting for the pennant now but would have had it cinched long ago. Berryhill was on the square. He wanted to win the flag with a team intact. Not until Schweitzer had been out of the game two weeks and it was absolutely necessary did he secure a player to take his place. He put up the best article at his command with his crippled team and it was away from home at that. Had Schweitzer been able to play the season out we all know where the pennant would have landed. This statement is not detrimental to any of the other players for they are the greatest of boys that ever gathered on a diamond. His absence caused a shifting of positions and they missed his good, true eye with the stick.

Manager Berryhill was handicapped a great deal during the season. Written was out of the game during the entire series in June with the exception of the last three days; Linke was out all through the month of May; Stoup was out ten days, Locke eight and Asher six. Bunny Pearce was out three weeks and four days during the season and this left but the one receiver to fill his place. Murray was out fourteen days. Gygil, thirteen, Abbott eight, Snyder six and Winters four. Havel, while a member of the team lost three weeks and Al Schweitzer has been out since September 1.

Truly, the trials and tribulations of a manager are plenty. But he must plod along doing the best he can and receive praise and censure alike. We say all honor to Manager Bob Berryhill and his fighting band of Molders. The former will go down in baseball history as being one of the squares' men that ever directed the fortunes of a minor league team, and the latter will never be forgotten by the baseball loving people of Newark.

After the game at Lancaster Sunday the boys will return here and Monday night will be tendered a farewell banquet by the Newark Baseball company after which good byes will be said and all but two will leave for their respective homes. Four of the boys have been called into faster company and several more may be drafted so that the personnel of next year's team will be entirely changed.

It is too late in the season for any exhibition games and the management will allow the players to disband immediately after the banquet. Manager Derryhill and Bunnie Pearce will leave for Lebanon, Ind., and after a short visit there Bunnie will leave for Massillon, O., where he will assist his father in running a hotel until he joins the Cincinnati Reds in the spring. Eddie Asher will probably go to Pasadena, Cal., where he will play ball this winter. Doc Smith will also go to Pasadena and will probably play during the cold months. Joe Locke has already left for his home at Monday. Smiling Joe Stoup will go to Lorain and next season will be found with Detroit. Laddie Linke will go to Columbus and he will play with the Senators of that city next season. Pitcher Dougherty will go to Nelsonville; Frank Gygil will winter in Cleveland; Erv Written will leave with his bride on a wedding tour of the East, after which he will spend the time until the opening of next season at Cincinnati; Al McClintock will leave for his home at Columbus; Doc Abbott will go to Coshocton; Lefty Snyder will go to Columbus; Al Schweitzer has left for Cincinnati. The only two members of the team who will remain in Newark are Sandy Murray and Scotty Winters.

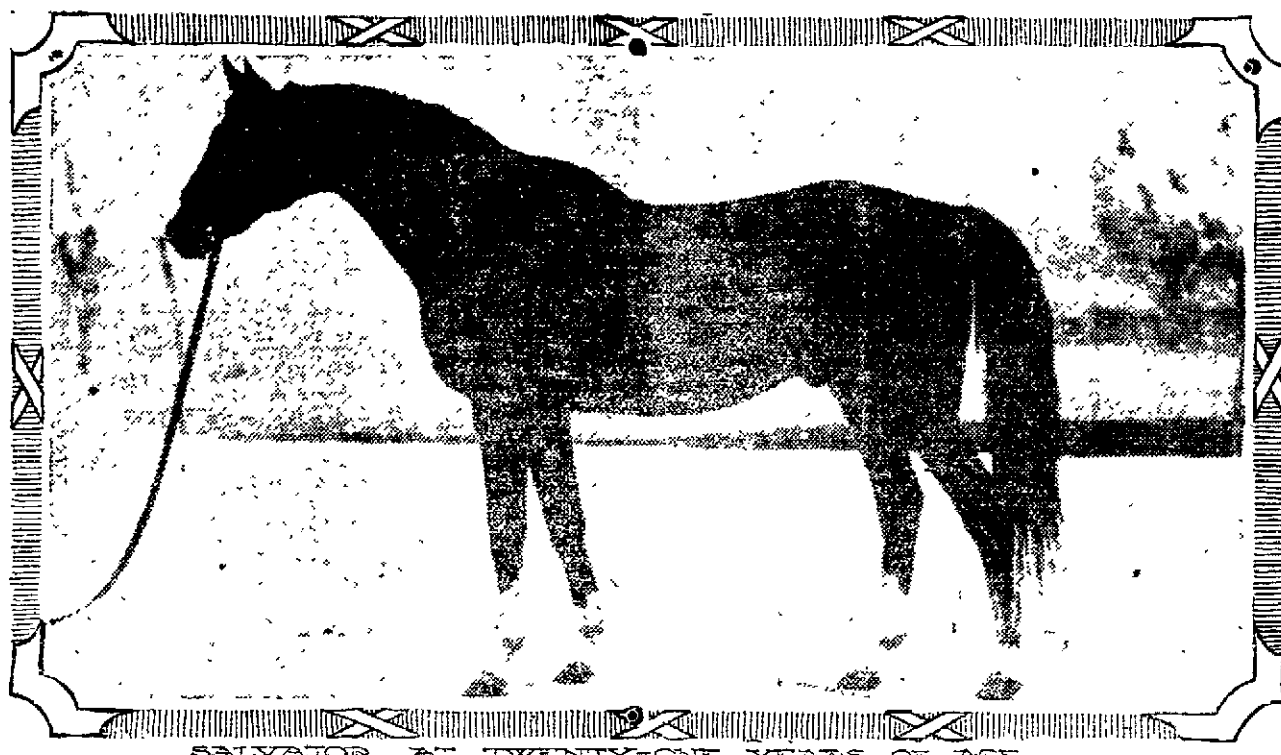

Sharon, 6; Akron, 6.

Sharon, Sept. 27.—Sharon and Akron battled 18 innings yesterday when darkness put an end to the struggle with the score 6 to 6. Bill Malarkey, who has been drafted by the New York Nationals, pitched the full game. Not a hit was made by the Akron bunch from the eighth to the seventeenth inning. He fanned 11 men and gave only one pass. Boyle was knocked out of the box in the fifth and McVeen finished. Both teams scored in the seventeenth. Sharon had several opportunities to score but could not get the necessary hit. Atch and Kent had home runs. Score: Sharon, 6; Akron, 6. Batteries—Malarkey and Mattison; Gygil, Doyle and Lohmeyer; Wright, Smink; attendance—500.

Youngstown, 14; New Castle, 2. Youngstown, Sept. 27.—New Castle scored the Champs in the fourth but after that the visitors never had a chance. In five times at bat, Servatius made a home run, a triple, a double

LIKELY FINAL STANDING

If Youngstown wins the one remaining game, Newark beats Lancaster Sunday, and Akron drops only one of four games at Sharon and New Castle today and Saturday, the final standing of the three pennant contenders even including the game forfeited to Akron by New Castle will be:

	G.	W.	L.	Pct.
Youngstown	138	86	52	.623
Newark	140	87	53	.621
Akron	138	85	53	.616

SHARON'S SUITS ARE ATTACHED

Akron, O., Sept. 27.—When the Sharon baseball players woke up at the Stag Hotel yesterday morning and looked about for their playing well bunched, it is expected that the finish will be an exciting one, and it may be that when Saturday rolls around that only one game will separate Akron, Youngstown and Newark.

New Castle has its old lineup in the field and for that reason the Nocks will give the East followers two hard battles. Just who will be assigned to work the games has not been announced, but Bannon and Hart will probably be the men sent here.

A delegation of Akron fans will attend as will President Morton. The league head announced his intention of being at the game yesterday.—New Castle Herald.

MANLON DOESN'T LIKE THE SACRIFICE

Manager Hanlon of Cincinnati would estimate the sacrifice hit as the play is ordinarily made. He said the other day: "If I made the rules I would forbid the sacrifice hit with a man on first and no one out. It is not baseball. The play is purely a mechanical one and far removed from the scientific features that characterize the playing of championship teams. I don't say that the play is not a winning one. It is a run getter, but it is retarding the general advance of skillful play. What is prettier than the hit and run for the fellows boosting for the team at bat, or, on the other hand, what beats a fast double play in the eyes of the fans on the other side? I have always said that a bunting team could not be beaten," added Hanlon, "but it is the unexpected plays that win. The spectators expect a sacrifice when one is due, as the game is now generally worked, and neither they nor the position is surprised."

BIG CROWD WILL WITNESS GAMES

Akron will meet with a warm reception when the team appears here next Saturday for the final games of the season with the Nocks. Officials of the local club are making arrangements to seat at least 2500 people and it may be that the crowd will be larger than that number. The greatest of interest is being taken in the coming games and New Castle fans will do all in their power to win for the Nocks. It may be that the double header will decide a position for Akron. The Tip Tops are fighting it out with Newark and Youngstown for first honors and as the season will close this week and the teams are Minnie—Yes, girlie; white slippers and stockings will be in vogue next season. Ball players think them very stylish.

Maud C.—No, he is not married, but then "Bunnie" goes to Cincinnati next spring.

Mamie—Sorry to disappoint you by this answer Mamie, but he was married last week. There are still a few eligibles on the team, however.

Anxious Reader—Oh, yes; we still have a chance to finish in first place. F. E. F.—No, Umpire Smink was never a puglist, but he ought to have been.

Dottie—Yes, it is entirely proper to encourage the players by calling out to them during the progress of the game. You may use their Christian names, and no one will think it strange.

Anegline—No, dear; there will be no more games at Wehrle park this season. You can see the boys play at Lancaster next Sunday. Take the 8 o'clock interurban for Columbus.

W. C. H.—You probably lost your watch while you were sleeping between the innings. You should not make confidantes of strangers.

Geraldine—Beg pardon, young lady, when a ball player loses his batting eye, he doesn't get an imitation one made from his glass arm.

Eva—He is a friend of mine and I will try and arrange a meeting. If he asks you to accompany him to the theatre it will be entirely proper after you have been introduced.

Anna—I'm surprised at your ignorance. When a player flies out and dies in doing so, he does not ride across the divide in an airship. It is merely a term used in telling that a man has been put out when a fielder catches a fly ball he has knocked.

Tommy O'D.—No, the sporting editor is not the boss of the ranch. Oh, yes, the job is quite easy. No, you don't have to have a personal acquaintance of every ball player in the country. Yes, you are expected to decide everything pertaining to the game that may be asked you. Sometimes the umpires and players whom you have written up may lay for you with a club or a brick, but you are supposed to be a good scrapper—or a good runner.

Charles B.—The best way to keep Lancaster from scoring Sunday will be to station yourself near third base during the game. If any start for home, just shoot 'em. If they arrest you tell the police the man you shot intended stealing your wife and claiming her as his affinity. Then if you are taken before "Squire" Bill Hill he will release you.

SYRACUSE N. Y., Sept. 27.—Syracuse university is preparing for the formal opening next month of its stadium, the largest and most complete athletic field in America, made possible by the gift of John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company.

Two years have elapsed since work on the stadium was begun. It is now nearly complete, at a cost of $600,000. A gymnasium building will be erected in the east end of the stadium at a cost of $400,000, making an expenditure of $1,000,000 for the promotion of athletics. The stadium forms an oval like the old Roman Coliseum, following the resemblance even to the tunnel from which the gladiators of old used to emerge. Around the entire stadium are grouped tiers of seats eighteen deep, one above the other. The capacity of the field is 20,000 seated spectators. It is 700 feet long and 500 feet wide. The length of the playing arena is 350 feet and the breadth 350 feet. In the excavation work fully 1,200,000 tons of soil were removed, and an average of 500 men have been employed daily. Not a pound of stone has been used in the construction. The stadium is built entirely of concrete, and thus far 30,000 tons have been used.

AMUSEMENTS

The Auditorium theatre, the pretty Newark playhouse, has started on another season and from present indications, the season of 1907-08 will probably be one of the most successful in the history of the theatre. The general manager, E. T. Johnson, who has charge of its destinies, is an experienced theatrical man and has booked an excellent list of attractions for the coming season.

Mr. Johnson is affable and courteous to all, from his most exclusive patrons, to his sworn friends, the gallery gods. As mentioned in the Advocate several weeks ago the list of attractions this year is far above the average bookings for a city the size of Newark, and though the way has been paved by his predecessors for securing the best in a theatrical way for this city, Mr. Johnson is instrumental in bringing stars to Newark that were never seen here before he took the reins.

The better grade of dramas and musical comedies will soon be produced here, and prospects are bright for a thoroughly successful season.

Two large audiences witnessed the production of "The Shoplifter" at the Auditorium theatre Saturday. The melodrama was full of exciting scenes and was used as a vehicle by some players well known to Newark audiences. Jules Walters, who has made a success of tramp characters, had the part of "Perceval Montgomery, an ex-convict," and was entirely satisfactory. The rest of his support was good with the exception of one or two characters.

"Thorns and Orange Blossoms," which is at the house tonight, is said to be one of the cleverest of the many plays taken from the novels of Bertha M. Clay.

Owing to the "classy" nature of its musical score, which was composed by A. Baldwin Sloane, "The Gingerbread Man," which will be seen here soon, is accompanied by an orchestra of its own, which comprises all the important musical instruments.

Miss Mary Clowes, through her lawyers, has entered a $10,000 damage suit against the Askin-Singer company for using, as she claims, her photo for advertising The Time, The Place and The Girl.

The Mayor of Loughland, with Tom Waters in the role of the "Merry Mayor," celebrated its 500th performance last Saturday in Burlington, Vermont. Mr. Waters had the entire company as his guests at dinner.

The wonderful popularity of certain shows in certain cities is a matter which the manager of forty years experience cannot explain. There are some shows which delight theatre-goers at one point and fails to please in a neighboring city the very next night. There are other shows which please on Broadway and register everything but a success in the one night stands.

Simple Simon Simple seems to be one of the kind that pleases everywhere, if its record at Norristown, Pa., can be taken as a criterion. The show was there recently for the eight and ninth performances in that city and once more played to the capacity of the theatre. Simple Simon Simple now holds the record there for number of performances given in three years, for the number of people attracted to a single performance and for the amount of money taken on the day.

When the show was there recently the Mayor of the city occupied a box and stated that it was the fifth time he had seen the show. The city clerk was there and stated that he had seen it three times previously. Five minutes were in attendance at the matinee and on of them stated that he had seen the show twice before. The superintendent of the schools was in the front row at night and eighteen school mams saw either the afternoon or night show. The police force was well presented, the bar was much in evidence and every line of endeavor was represented with the exception of barbers, clerks, restaurant people and kindred lines which cannot get to the theatre on Saturdays.

The touring right to "Brewster's Millions" has been secured by Cohan & Harris.

Dorothy Tennant of "The College Widow," is announced as one of the new stars to twinkle next season.

"Tom Jones," one of the new comic operas which Henry W. Savage will produce later on, is now at the Apollo theatre, London.

Ottley Cranston, formerly of the Savage "Parsifal" and English grand opera companies, will return to America. He has been engaged by Mr. Savage for the role of Sharpless, the United States consul in Puccini's "Madam Butterfly."

Reports from New New York indicate that Mr. David Belasco is determined to give us a notable production of "The Rose of the Rancho" when it is presented here next season. It is his latest play and is said to surpass every other drama now on tour in artistic refinement and exquisite scenery as well as dramatic interest. It ran eight months at the Belasco Theatre, New York, until hot weather intervened, but will open the season again at the same theatre.

The special company which will present "Sweet Kitty Belairs" in this city next season, is already rehearsing on the stage of the Belasco Theatre, New York, for its coming tour under the exacting eye of Mr. David Belasco himself.

Roselle Knott, an actress of some ability and reputation, better known in the West than in the East, has been forced to retire from the stage because of ill health. Miss Knott succeeded Julia Marlowe in "When Knighthood Was in Flower."

After reposing for many years on the shelf of the school room library, "Black Beauty" has been taken down, dusted off and put upon the stage. The advance man does not say who will play Black Beauty and none of the other actors mentioned are known at all.

Frank Deshon and J. Lee McClure, in their old parts in "Miss Bob White," inaugurated their seventh season in Willard Spenser's famous opera, and achieved individual triumphs in the roles of the two millionaire tramps.

Gus Pixley the comedian of Nixon & Zimmerman's Gingerbread Man company, who was last season past, and in fact, for several seasons past leading comedian with "Babes in Toyland," is no relation to Annie Pixley, as popular opinion seems to suggest. Mr. Pixley, however, is related to the sitions, but the substitution of a great deal of Cibber's own matter for Shakespeare's. So far as the records show, the original text has never been used for representations of the tragedy in the United States, although both Samuel Phelps and Henry Irving disregarded the traditional Cibber version when they gave the tragedy in London.

It cost William A. Brady $19,500 to put "Her Majesty" on the stage, in 1900, for Grace George. It failed. It cost him $900 to revive "Divorcens," last April, for her. She has, from all accounts, made the success of her career in the old Sardon farce.

Fifty Miles From Boston, George M. Cohan's rural musical play, will make a brief road tour previous to the beginning of an extended season in New York. The same elaborate production as seen in Chicago and Boston will be used, while the cast will include such well known players as Edna Wallace Hopper, Fritz Williams assisted by the usual Cohanesque Chorus.

MURRAY COMEDY COMPANY.

One of the events of the season will be the coming of the Murray Comedy company, a popular priced attraction well known and favorably commented upon from the east to the west, the cities say it is good as the best. A roster of eighteen people and specialties galore. In fact, the curtain is never run down for more than a minute. The opening play will be "Angie, the Country Girl," a pure heart stirring story, comedy and tears skillfully intermingled. A play way up above anything ever seen here at popular prices. Manager J. Rus Smith, the proprietor, is to be congratulated upon his good work in getting together such an aggregation. The Murray Comedy company will be here one week commencing Monday, September 30. Every lady accompanied by a person with a paid thirty cent ticket will be admitted free on opening night if purchased before 6 o'clock.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

The Al Martin version of Uncle Tom's Cabin returned to the Imperial yesterday. This is not quite the play that former generations were familiar with, though it is based on the same story, and is constructed around the same general framework. It is different in that it contains more laughter than pathos, and there are various novelties in the way of plantation scenes which contribute to the popular enjoyment of the piece. The tear compelling story of Little Eva remains intact, and there are scenic effects which increase the effectiveness of this episode. But the producers have managed to give the story as a whole a comedy tone which is perhaps more commendable than the spirit in which the work was formerly produced. A thoroughly competent company has been brought together for this season's tour of the play.—St. Louis Globe Democrat, Sept. 16.

NEWARK'S BALL TEAM.

(By MRS. A. B. McDONALD.)

A cheer, a cheer, for this baseball year.
Three cheers for our own home team:
The eyes of the baseball world center here—
They know Newark players are the cream.

The official board secured a prize.
When they unearthed level-headed Manager "Bob."
He's made major league magnates open their eyes.
Don't forget it, he's onto his job.

How about our captain? Isn't he swell
When he steals home all in a hurry?
The "fans" would explode if they did not yell
For our fast second baseman, "Sandy Murray."

Out in right field we've a dandy man.
He hikes after the ball with the speed of a rabbit.
He'll catch it, you can wager, if any one can.
We are all proud of modest, reliable "Doc. Abbott."

Keep your eye to left field when the game is on,
And a nice catch will perhaps decide her.
Good work on that part of the field has seen many won
By the player we all know as "Lefty Snyder."

We have a number one first baseman, you can bet.
He holds down his place solid, not wiggly.
Many a hopeful batsman has his Waterloo met
When the ball landed safe in the glove of "Gygil."

A brave warrior of the rival team comes to the plate.
Sure, here is where his batting average he'll fatten.
But you missed it, sonny, on many a date.
When you hit out to territory covered by "Erve Wratten."

The Newark team has led as a beacon light.
Some others may have led on sprinters.
Both our catchers have put up a gallant fight;
Many a day has been saved by "Scotty Winters."

One there is who is known and admired by every one.
Though his catcher's mask makes him look so fierce.
His baseball career is young, has only begun;
A great future awaits our candy man, "Bunny Pearce."

The Newark team are all stars in the baseball sky.
They have all other team in this league on the hop.
Their field work is great—no others need try
To beat that of "McClintock," our brilliant shortstop.

Out in the center field we watch a new face;
We are sure in this fight he'll help save us.
Hats off to Zanesville whose good will in this race
Gave us one of her brightest stars, "Red Davis."

Baseball games are full of peril and accidents galore;
Sprained ankles and broken shoulders are often met with.
Each team must have an extra who is a hero and something more.
Newark has one whose valor shed luster on the name of "Smith."

There is a face that is missed when the boys go on a batting lark;
He's not forgotten, don't think so badly of us, quite, sir.
If we did, the bases and score board at Wehrle Park
Would break forth in praises of "Al Schweitzer."

Lastly we turn the camera on our pitching staff,
The most faithful, hard working group;
Their worth we know, and their health we quaff.
Beginning with the champion, smiling "Joe Stoup."

Next him we place one who looks frailest of all,
But he's game, would stand by his ship until it sunk;
He knows how to deliver the goods and take a fall
Out of the enemy at the plate, does "Laddy Linke."

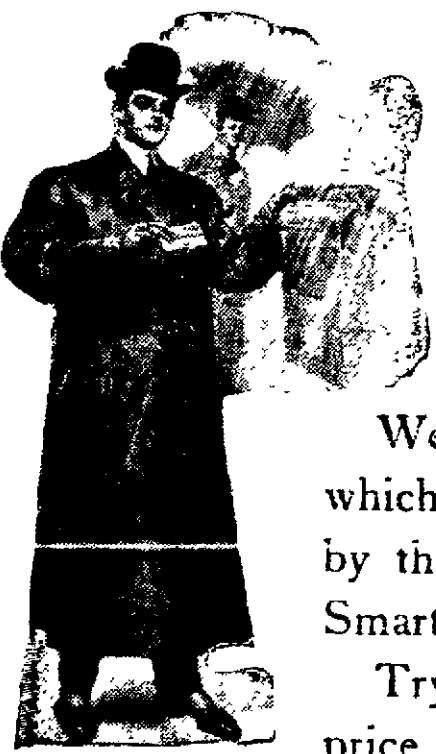

Now we show a pitcher of muscle and brawn.
He's a friend of all the ladies, but no masquer;
He can play ball, but is shy when Cupid's darts are thrown.
But he'll meet his fate some day, will "Eddy Asher."

Our four steady pitchers have won lasting fame;
Through all this active season they have stood like a rock
To defend the city they represent and the Molders' name.
We'll all carry (even if his wife objects) the picture of "Uncle Joe Locke."

All honor to the boys who brought our city into the lime light.
The Newark baseball team of Nineteen-Naught-Seven;
They have won our hearts by their bravery in the fight.
Here's hoping that at the end of life's race they'll all reach heaven.

MR. FRANK DUNCAN GOES TO SHARON PA.

Fellow Employees in Advocate Office Present Him With Fine Shaving Outfit Friday.

Mr. Frank Duncan, who for the past five years has been connected with the Advocate, the greater part of the time as assistant pressman under Mr. J. T. Wilson, has resigned his position and will leave Saturday for Sharon, Pa., to accept a position as pressman on the Sharon Telegram, owned by Mr. A. C. Dickinson, formerly proprietor of the Newark American-Tribune. During the time Mr. Duncan has been with the Advocate he has proved to be a very capable and efficient workman, and always had the friendship of every one in the office. As a slight token of the esteem in which he is held the employees of the office, as well as all connected with it, on Friday morning presented him with a handsome safety razor, together with a silver shaving mug and brush. Mr. Duncan, although taken completely by surprise, expressed his appreciation in a manner that carried conviction with it. Mr. Duncan will carry with him the best wishes of all connected with the Advocate.

BISHOP OF LONDON GIVES A MESSAGE IN OLD TRINITY

CHRISTIAN WOULD NOT TAKE A DOLLAR NOT JUSTIFIED IN SIGHT OF HEAVEN.

"Life is a Stewardship Not an Ownership"—A Great Throng Heard the Sermon.

New York, Sept. 27.—From the pulpit of historic Trinity church, in the heart of the country's great financial district, Rt. Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, bishop of London, delivered the message: "Life is a stewardship, not an ownership."

A greater throng perhaps never sought admission to the edifice, and when all who could be accommodated were within hundreds lingered outside to catch a glimpse of the noted divine.

Notable laymen and men prominent in Wall street had to stand on the edge of the crowd. J. P. Morgan stood at the end of an aisle throughout the opening services. Then a younger man gave him his seat. It was surely not such an audience as the Bishop was accustomed to during the nine years of his settlement work in the East End of London, as the head of the Oxford House. He said:

"I know not to whom I am preaching. I shall be as frank here as I am in London. No man who is really a Christian would soil his Christian hands with one dollar, the possession of which he could not justify in the sight of heaven."

His text was from the second verse of the 16th chapter of the Gospel According to St. Luke: "Render the account of thy stewardship, for thou canst be no longer steward."

"The one thing," he said, "the one sentence which above all others I would say to you, a sentence as yet unlearned in London and New York, and which, if adopted, would cleanse the life on both sides of the Atlantic, is: Life is a stewardship, and not an ownership."

"All the evils in the world are due to the neglect of the Christian principle that we are here only as custodians of what we have, be it wealth or anything else, founded upon the fact that Christ died to redeem man and again place him in fair standing. If city officials and government servants would live up to these two thoughts there would be no boodling, no miscarriage of justice and no broken hearts."

The Bishop left last night for Washington where he will call upon the President.

JAPANESE PAPERS TALKING OF TAFT

Tokyo, Sept. 27.—Several of the morning papers publish editorial articles on the approaching visit to Japan of Secretary Taft, who is due here very soon on board the steamer Minnesota. The Hochi Shimbun, an organ of the Progressive party, says the visit is most opportune at the present juncture, and that it undoubtedly will result in a better feeling for the United States among the masses of Japan, where false reports have caused misunderstandings.

THAW CONFIDENT

New York, Sept. 27.—In a copy-righted article by Charles Somerville, appearing in the New York Evening Journal today, Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, is quoted in the first direct interview he has given since the night of the Madison Square Garden tragedy. Thaw in the interview tells of his choice of Littleton as his lawyer for the coming trial and expresses absolute certainty of his acquittal within the next six months. He pays a high tribute to the loyalty of his young wife.

IMPORTANT PLEADINGS FILED BY SOLICITOR IN COMMON PLEAS

City Solicitor Frank A. Bolton filed important pleadings in several city cases Friday.

In the case of the B. & O. Railroad company vs. the City of Newark, leave was given to answer instant. Suit is brought by the B. & O. company to collect from the city money alleged to be due the B. & O. for the employment of a watchman at the Union street crossing. Kibler & Montgomery, Bolton.

Clarence C. Sharp et al vs. City of Newark; leave to plead instant. Plaintiff sues for damages growing out of an injury received by plaintiff caused by an alleged defective condition of a sidewalk in the city.

Flory & Flory; Bolton.

Wm. R. Davis vs. City of Newark. An action to recover for extra work and balance alleged to be due on a contract for the construction of the Woods avenue sewer. Leave was given to plead instant. Martin, James; Bolton.

Philip Coffman vs. City of Newark. Plaintiff sues for damages occasioned, as plaintiff alleges, by the caving in of a portion of the street, when a large traction engine passed over, injuring the engine. Leave was also given to plead instant. Smythe & Smythe; Bolton.

Geo. Naylor, administrator vs. the City of Newark. Leave given to answer instant. The suit is a novel one, being one for damages occasioned by the falling of a counter which was left in an alley, falling on the son of the plaintiff and killing him. Smythe & Smythe, Kibler & Montgomery; Bolton.

Thos. L. Spicer vs. Wm. H. Wise. Plaintiff brings the action to recover a balance due on a claim for labor. Leave given to answer instant. Horner; Bolton.

Isaac Goldman vs. Wm. J. Deedim. An action for damages for malicious prosecution. Leave was given to file answer instant. Bolton.

Harry D. Baker, trustee, vs. City of Newark. This action grows out of the insolvency proceedings against Wm. Dahnke. Dahnke built the police patrol station and after its completion went into bankruptcy. Plaintiff alleges that there is due Dahnke from the city the sum of about $1700 and brings the suit to recover that amount. Baker sues for the benefit of creditors, being the trustee in bankruptcy. The city files an interpleader setting up the fact that the money is due William Dahnke, and asks an order of court to deposit the money with the clerk, to await the disposition of the case. Hunter; Bolton.

The court made an order, as requested by the city, and the money in dispute will be deposited with the clerk.

Lucy Wade vs. George Johnson; jury waived; submitted to court and judgment for defendant as to the right of property and $150. Kflier & Montgomery; Smythe Smythe.

Peter H. Barber, administrator vs. Frank McFadden et al. An action in interpleader. Judgment and finding for plaintiff. Bond for appeal $50. Stasel; Smythe & Smythe, Norpell & Norpell, Kibler and Montgomery.

WAS HATCHED BY AMERICANS

Revolutionist Leaders in Cuba Merely Hired for the Job.

SECRET SERVICE HAS NAMES

Had Planned to Start the Uprising at Seven Different Points—Governor Magoon Prepared for Any Eventuality—Opinion of the War Office Officials.

Havana, Sept. 27.—It was rumored here that General Estanosa and General Acosta had taken to the field, but the report could not be confirmed. It is known that the leaders of the movement planned to start the revolution at seven different points simultaneously. When General Miret was taken into custody he was in an automobile and, it is alleged, he was preparing to leave for the locality assigned him. Members of the Conservative party are greatly worked up over the arrest of General Ducassi, who has been declaring himself in sympathy with that party.

It is known the plot originally was hatched in New York by certain Americans whose names it is said, already are in the possession of the United States government secret service officers, and it is stated that the leaders here were simply professional revolutionists hired for the job.

General Parra is the alleged leader of the conspiracy to start a revolution against the Americans in Cuba, with the use of funds supplied from or through some firm on Broadway, New York. It is known that simultaneously with the arrival of Parra at Havana three Santo Domingans, well known on account of their previous revolutionary records, also reached this port, and it is stated that other individuals of a similar character are working in eastern Cuba. The government has knowledge of the fact that General Jimenez, the ex-president of San Domingo, has recently been at Santiago de Cuba, but whether he was connected with the conspiracy is not yet known.

Governor Magoon, however, is not taking any chances. He is amply prepared, with 5,000 American soldiers and 5,000 rural guards, to crush any movement at an instant after it is started.

War Officials Not Alarmed.

Washington, Sept. 27.—War department officials, while admitting that agitation is rampant among the negro population in Cuba because of their failure to receive their proper share of the officers, discredit the probability of any uprising against the provisional government on that account. The negro population, composing 90 per cent of the people who opposed Palma's government, claim they have not been fairly treated. A continuation of this agitation, it is admitted, might have a serious effect in driving some of the malcontents to attempted risings in isolated places, but Governor Magoon is said to be prepared to prevent anything like an insurrection.

Conspirators in Jail.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Official word of the arrests of conspirators in Havana reached the war department in the following cablegram addressed by Governor Magoon to Acting Secretary Oliver: "Information more specific and certain than heretofore received was secured that Maso Parra, angered by failing to bring about an uprising, threatened to dynamite some building in Havana and then escape. The local police arrested him and two of his gang, named Lara Miret and Dacasse, and they are now in jail."

KILLED WOMAN

Negro Wanted in Chicago Is Captured by the Police.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 27.—Richard Walton, the negro charged with the murder of Mrs. Lillian White Grant in Chicago by strangling her Sept. 18, was arrested here and is being held awaiting orders from Chicago. After his arrest he admitted that he was Walton, and also admitted that he was wanted for several minor offenses. A reward of $600 has been offered for his arrest and conviction. Walton, it is alleged, strangled Mrs. Grant at her home while she was moving and robbed her dead body of $10. He had been hired by the woman to assist her in moving.

KILLED BY AUTO

Newark, N. J., Sept. 27.—Marcus J. Jacobs, manager of the Columbia theater here, was run down and killed by an automobile as he was crossing Broad street. The machine was going at a high rate of speed and did not stop after the accident.

IDAHO TIMBER LAND FRAUDS

Attempt Made to Connect Senator Borah With the Conspiracy.

GOVERNMENT OUTLINES CASE

Former Judge Burch States to the Jury What the Prosecution Will Attempt to Show—Late Governor Steunenberg's Name Mentioned in Attorney's Address.

Boise, Ida., Sept. 27.—Former Judge Burch of Michigan, special prosecutor, outlined the government's case against United States Senator Borah in the timber lands frauds. It was stated to the jury that the idea of making money out of the timber lands, which the United States threw open to settlement in Idaho in tracts not to exceed 160 acres to any individual and at a price not to exceed $2.50 per acre, originated with State Senator John Kincaid, one of the men indicted with Senator Borah. He is alleged to have gathered several men around him, among them the late Governor Steunenberg and William Sweet, a mining man.

These men, so it is alleged, put up the first $75 as a joint note, being the security by which the alleged frauds were inaugurated. About this time (in 1899), Attorney Burch asserts, Governor Steunenberg went to a conference, called presumably for the purpose of putting down the mining troubles, and while there met a mine owner named A. B. Campbell. Through Campbell, it is alleged, Steunenberg, who had exhausted his personal resources, met Barber and Moon, who immediately took a deep interest in Idaho timber lands. Governor Steunenberg soon had a bank account of $38,000, it is alleged, which he checked from as "agent."

Mr. Burch said that in connecting Senator Borah with the conspiracy, the government will show that all deeds from "dummy" trustees to the Barber Lumber company passed through his office and were recorded, as the records will show, at his request. It is further stated that when four or five fraudulent claims were held up, Mr. Borah went to the home of the register of the local land office and made inquiry as to what was to be done concerning them. The register told him, it is said, that the claims were fraudulent and had better be left alone. It is further charged that on one occasion, when Governor Morrison was executive of Idaho and about to file a state preference on certain timber lands for school purposes, Senator Borah went to him and sought information as to what lands the state planned to take, and said he did not think it was right that the state should take such lands. It is said that James T. Barber, in sending one of his men to Idaho, was heard to remark: "If there is anything you want in Idaho go to William E. Borah. He is our attorney out there."

Will Approve Constitution. Washington, Sept. 27.—President Roosevelt announced that he would approve the Oklahoma constitution. He said he had examined the document with the attorney general, and that he felt that the question of his approval ought not to be based on his personal opinion of the document, but upon whether it came within the terms of the enabling act. His personal opinion of the document, the president laughingly said, was "not fit for publication." The promulgation of his approval will be made later.

HEAVY PROFITS

Made by Indiana Pipe Line Company. New York Hearing.

New York, Sept. 27.—The Indiana Pipe Line company, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil, made a profit of $4,091,022 in 1903 on a total investment of $2,228,798, according to the company's figures presented by George Chesbro, controller of the National Pipe Line company, who appeared as a witness in the federal suit against the oil combine. Mr. Chesbro testified that the Indiana Pipe Line company was a common carrier and engaged only in the transportation of oil. From balance sheets of the company Frank B. Kellogg, conducting the government's case, sought to show that the Indiana company was making excessive profits and that it maintained a high schedule of tariffs to prevent shipments of oil by independent oil producers. Mr. Chesbro testified that the Indiana company transported practically only the oil of the Standard company. The counsel for the government state that it will be shown that the profits made by these pipe line companies have in some cases been twenty times the actual cost of operation.

CREDIT CURRENCY

American Bankers Indorse Bill Introduced in Congress.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 27.—The report of the currency commission appointed by the American Bankers' association at St. Louis last year was made to the convention of the association, now in session in this city. The report recommends a measure introduced in the last session of congress known as the credit currency bill. The report was adopted and its powers enlarged. An attack upon the plan of the commission was made by a number of western delegates, especially by A. J. Frame of Michigan, who contended that the primary cause of money shortage in the United States was due to overspeculation, and that the credit currency plan pointed backward to eighteenth century fiatism. As an alternative he advocated a central reserve fund. He was supported in his views by a number of other members.

Root Not a Candidate.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 27.—Secretary of State Root, while in Richmond a short time on his way to Mexico, gave an interview in which he stated emphatically that he has no presidential aspirations and that the presidency has no allurement for him. The secretary stated that he is enjoying the trip and finds the weather splendid for traveling.

PRISONER IS SORRY HE DIDN'T KILL MAN WHOM HE ASSAULTED

Mansfield, Sept. 27.—Deputy Sheriff Sheridan Carroll of Richland county was attacked in the jail at Mansfield by William Schrader of Belleville, serving time for contempt of court, and would probably have been beaten to death but for interference on the part of four other prisoners. Schrader refused to pay alimony to his wife as ordered. He has been in jail 103 days and has given the jail attendants lots of trouble. Carroll was about to lock Schrader up for bad conduct in the jail hallway when the latter wrenched a piece from his bed and attacked the deputy. Carroll's head was badly gashed and his injuries are serious. Schrader says that he will not leave the jail alive and that he is sorry that he didn't kill Carroll.

NORTH DAKOTA

Will Be Name of Battleship No. 23—Another To Be Called Delaware.

Washington, Sept. 27.—North Dakota will be the name of battleship No. 23, one of the new 20,000-ton vessels, contracts for which were recently awarded by the navy department. The other vessel is heretofore announced, will be called the Delaware. President Roosevelt has decided that as so many vessels bear the names of New York cities, it would be unfair to carry out the original plan of naming No. 23 the New York and of changing the cruiser of the same name to the Salustiana. Utah is now the only state left which no vessel is named.

Wu Ting Fang Acceptable. Washington, Sept. 27.—President Roosevelt announced at the White House that he assented to the would be no objection to the appointment of Wu Ting Fang as minister from China to the United States. The president added, however, that he had not formally taken up the matter with the state department.

MARKSMANSHIP IN ARMY AND NAVY

New York, Sept. 27.—Considerable discussion and a little bad feeling has been engendered between army and navy men over the quality of marksmanship observed in each branch of the service. General Grant said he was glad the navy gunners were such good marksmen, but he did not intend that they should get away with all the glory, for army marksmanship had always been one of his hobbies.

In 1905 General Grant recommended to the war department that a bonus be paid for superior marksmanship in the army. The results were beyond his expectations. In the fourteen companies in his command the general figure of merit in that year was 50.1. The next year under the bonus plan it was 59.7.

RESENT FOREIGN FACE ON NEW COIN.

MISS MARY CUNNINGHAM

Harrisburg, Sept. 27.—Victor E. Boyer of Allentown, the newly elected State Councilor of the Independent Order of Americans, will personally present to the Secretary of the Treasury Cordey on the protest of the order against the placing of the face of Mary Cunningham on the new United States gold coins.

At its annual convention just concluded here the State Council of the Independent Order of Americans directed its chief executive to convey to the Treasury Department authorities its earnest objections to going outside of the United States for a model for the female profile on the new coins.

Miss Cunningham happens to have been born in Ireland, just sixteen years ago. Recently she came to the land of the free in search of a livelihood and after working for a time in Boston obtained a place as waitress in a little restaurant at Cornish, Vt. It was there that the late Augustus Saint

PEACE TREATY

Nicaraguan and Salvador Ministers Discuss Permanent Peace Arrangements With Bacon.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Minister Corea of Nicaragua and Minister Mejia of Salvador called at the state department and discussed with Acting Secretary Bacon the approaching conference to arrange a permanent peace treaty. The minister from La Union, Salvador, for Puerto Arenas, Costa Rica, to take the Salvadoran minister to Costa Rica to San Salvador to receive his government's instructions and then convey him to Panama and place him aboard a steamer for San Francisco. He will be one of the delegates at the conference.

POLES SEE PRESIDENT

Washington, Sept. 27.—A large delegation of the Polish National Alliance of the United States, which has been in annual convention at Baltimore, laid a floral tribute at the foot of the statue of Washington in plaza east of the capitol and placed a wreath before the busts of Kosciusko and Pulaski, the Polish patriots, in the capitol building. Later the delegates were received by President Roosevelt at the White House.

Harriman Operated On.

New York, Sept. 27.—E. H. Harriman was not at his office, having undergone a surgical operation for the trouble from which he suffered last winter. The operation is stated to be trifling in comparison with that which Mr. Harriman underwent eight months ago, but he is not expected to return to his office until next week.

Boat Capsized; Fourteen Drowned.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 27.—A ferryboat crossing the Tombigbee river at the government works at McGrews shoals, near Jackson, Ala., capsized, drowning one white boy and 13 negroes. The boy was Leslie Vernulle, 16 years old, residing in Oakesdale, a suburb of this city. The scene of the accident has long been regarded as a very dangerous place by navigators of the river on account of the rapid and treacherous current and the rock shoals there.

Jap Inquisitor Arrives.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—T. Imai, secretary of the Japanese consulate at Honolulu, arrived here on the steamer Siberia, having been ordered by his home government to proceed to Vancouver and make a thorough investigation of the recent anti-Japanese outbreaks there.

SEEKS SCALP OF HARRIMAN

Fish Says It's Up to Illinois Central Stockholders.

HOLDS ROAD'S FATE AT STAKE

Replies to the Circular Letter Issued the Other Day by President Harahan—Harriman Faction Said to Have Secured a Majority of Proxies For the Annual Meet.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—President J. T. Harahan of the Illinois Central railroad confirmed a statement to the effect that he and Vice President A. G. Hackstaff have proxies for more than a majority of the entire outstanding issue of stock. When asked if the Harriman faction had 50 per cent of the stock in possession and proxies, he replied: "We already have more than that, but I shall not give any figures." He also declined to say whether the four retiring directors would be re-elected.

New York, Sept. 27.—A reply to the circular issued by President Harahan of the Illinois Central was made public by Stuyvesant Fish, who declares the charges made by Mr. Harahan were not new, but had been met and disposed of long ago. Mr. Fish then says:

"But the one point at issue to be decided by stockholders of Illinois Central at the coming annual meeting is nowhere touched upon. That is simply this: Shall the Illinois Central become a mere feeder and fat-tender of the Union Pacific? Can any such perversion of the purposes and opportunities of the Illinois Central be profitable to the stockholders? Will Illinois Central stockholders submit to having all of their voice and power in the management and control of their property delegated to one man, under the power of attorney plan, which Mr. Harriman has so adroitly used to his own profit? That question will be determined on Oct. 16, 1907, by the rejection, or the election of E. H. Harriman as a director of the Illinois Central Railway company."

Mr. Fish then quotes from the by-laws of the Union Pacific to show how this could be done, and continues: "A certain interest does, however, attach to some of the specious excuses now put out by Mr. Harriman and his financial associates, for my having been ousted; and there is also interest attaching to the reasons why it has been necessary to change and modify those excuses so often. The circular of Sept. 24, which is fathered by Mr. Harahan, shows on its face that it emanates from Mr. Harriman in that it contains precisely the same allegations that he had injected into his testimony before the interstate commerce commission last February."

Mr. Fish says his personal enemies could point only to one small loss during his incumbency—due to failure of the Dresser firm. He concludes: "But as the Union Pacific party have seen fit to go back into the ancient history of the Illinois Central, I may as well say now, as at another time, my differences with Mr. Harriman and Charles A. Peabody, who were then, as now, also directors of the Union Pacific, began in 1904, when they sought to have the board of directors of the Illinois Central Railroad company delegate the powers vested in it by the charter to an executive committee and offered me membership therein and the chairmanship thereof. This I prevented. Then began the large purchases of Illinois Central shares by or through Kuhn, Loeb & Company, which were secretly turned over to Union Pacific in July, 1906."

Creator of Plant Marvels

LIFE AND WORK OF LUTHER BURBANK, TAMER OF THE DESERT CACTUS.

Remarkable Achievements of the Man Who Predicts the Thornless Variety Will Become the Great Fodder of Arid Regions—Poppies of Vast Size and Bewildering Beauty. Wonderful Results in Fruit Experiments—Quick and Decided in His Method of Working.

LUTHER BURBANK, California's celebrated creator of plants, who delivered an address on the cactus at the recent national irrigation congress, made the prediction that the thornless variety would become the great fodder of arid regions.

Mr. Burbank has been called a wizard, but the term is misleading, writes George Wharton James in the Circle. There is no wizardry in his achievements. Yet to accompany him to his cactus patch and there see the great, heavy leaved desert plant, so covered with fierce thorns that even to stand near it makes one squirm, and then to follow step by step where in different sections he shows the cactus slowly losing its thorns until you stand before a group into which he suddenly dives headlong, taking the great leaves and rubbing his face and hands against them—this does seem like magic.

It is even more pleasing and equally surprising to sit at his table and have served to you the fruit of this same cactus, the prickly pear of the Indian, but wholly free from thorns and changed from the tasteless, fibrous, seedy fruit to a richly flavored, juicy, delicious table luxury.

In his garden not far from the cactus patch is his wonderful crimson job here and another there, passed through a very severe illness, went on the tramp for work, until finally he was able to start a little nursery on his own account. Then all at once he did something that made those who knew about it look at him. An order came for 20,000 young prune trees. Could he fill it in nine months?

Fine Prune Orchard.

He hadn't a prune tree on his place, and how was he going to supply 20,000 in nine months? He got together all the men and boys he could find to plant almonds for him. They grow rapidly. When they were ready he had 20,000 prune buds ready for them, and in a short time the prunes were budded into the growing almonds, and before the time was up the trees were delivered to the delighted ranchman. And I have seen these 20,000 prune trees. They are growing today, and it is really one of the finest orchards in California.

Before he disposed of his business his returns were $10,000 a year. Then he sold out. What for? To rest? To take a holiday trip? No. Now he was ready to give his whole life to the experiments he had been dreaming of for years.

But it is a well known fact of all history that the dreamer and experimenter is seldom a money maker. So it was with Burbank. His experiments were costly. Soon his interest money was all gone. He began to use up the principal. Year after year he worked on, now and again letting the world know of some new discovery. His fortune began to dwindle, yet he never faltered. He determined to keep on as long as his money held out, and said he in talking to me of this period:

"I was willing to begin over again if I had to. I felt sure I could earn enough to live on, and if not, if I had grown too old and feeble, Providence would see that I was cared for in some way or other."

Rapid Tester of Trees.

In his method of working Burbank is quick and decided. It was my privilege to be with him during one morning in his proving ground at Sebastopol, some seven miles from his home.

Row after row of young plum trees, covered with fruit, stood before us. Two assistants were with us, one with a handful of white cords and one with a handful of brown or black ones.

"These are all grown from the same seed. Now see how they differ."

He picked a few plums from the first tree. Rapidly he looked at one, carefully tasted it and said, "Kill." I had scarcely got my teeth into the first plum when he was on to the next tree and the next and the next, with a rapidity that was simply astounding. His keen eyes, trained to scientific accuracy, saw at what seemed to me to be one glance all the attributes of the tree. One taste satisfied him as to texture, juiciness and flavor of the fruit, and thus almost in a moment he had decided whether that tree was worth keeping for further experimentation or was to go to the bonfire.

Almost as fast as I can write the words fell from his lips, "Kill," "Keep," "Keep," "Kill," "Kill," "Keep." The attendants followed and put on the white or black strings which denoted the fate of the particular tree.

Beginning of His Labors.

A little history of the very beginning of Mr. Burbank's labors is sure to be interesting to those who like to know how the primary idea of great achievements was born. He was but a mere lad in New England when the first thoughts of plant development and improvement came to him. He saw that all the apples on the same tree were not exactly the same in size, color, shape, juiciness, flavor or fiber.

He gathered from one rosebush roses that, while of the same species, were larger, smaller, redder, paler in tint, more fragrant, less fragrant than others on the same bush. Potatoes in the same hill were of differing sizes and quality and flavor, and so on. This led him to the conclusion that if by selection or cross fertilization these better fruits or flowers could be stimulated the whole product would be improved.

While these thoughts were bubbling in his brain he was a market gardener and was growing potatoes, and he saw that out of a batch of potatoes in his field there was but one which bore a seed ball. He decided to experiment with the seeds.

When he came to pick the ball it was gone. In despair he was about to go away and give up when he decided to make a search for it. Soon, to his delight, he found it where doubtless some wandering dog had knocked it as he rushed through the garden.

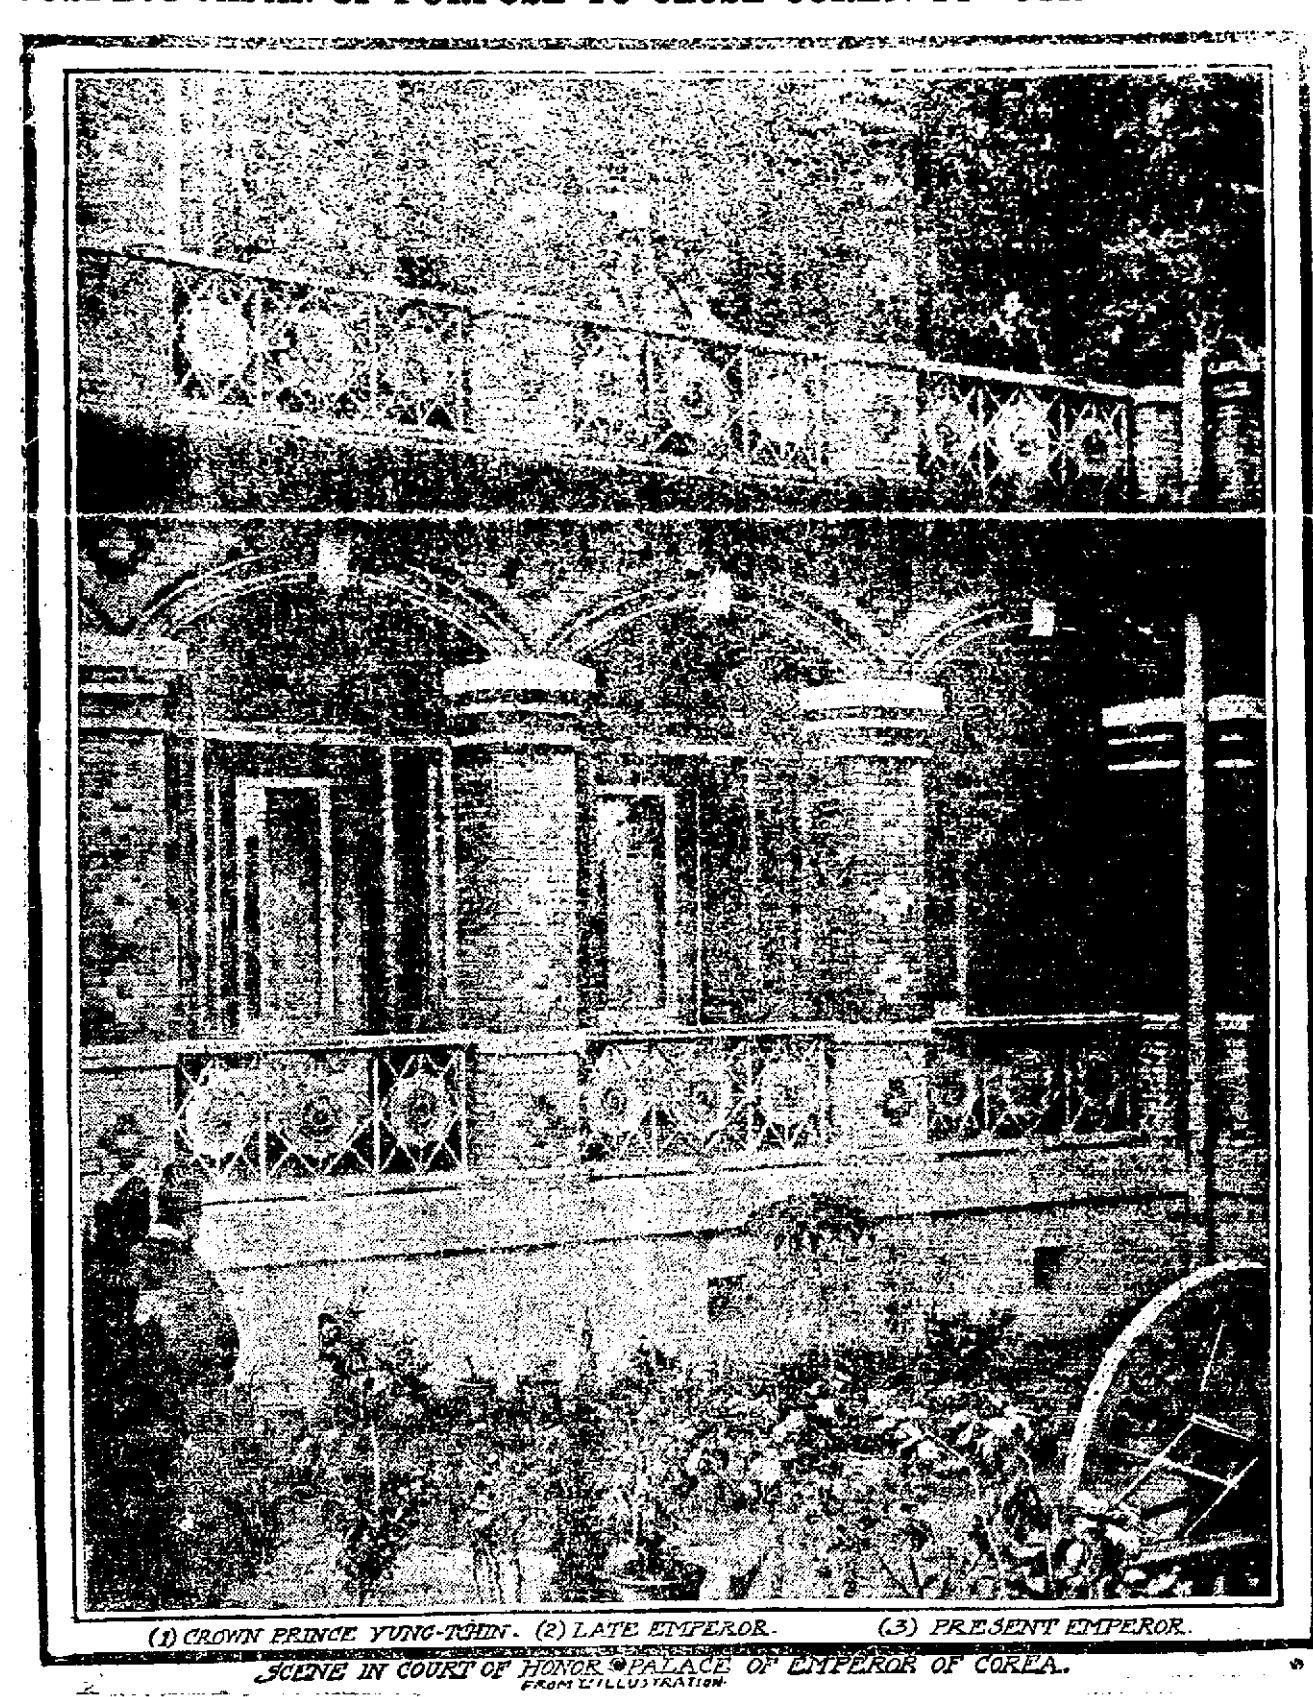

World Renowned Potato.

The experiments began and soon developed the now world renowned Burbank potato, from which millions have been made and which has given cheaper and better potatoes to the world. Yet he sold it to a local seedsman for $150.

That was his start, and he was not yet twenty years of age. Then a sunstroke made a partial invalid of him, and all his life seemed to be changed. For his health he was shipped off to California, and here he had battles and struggles that would have daunted and discouraged any but the most determined and sincere.

To most people Burbank appears shy and reserved, almost to diffidence and timidity. He is shrinking in a sense, but let questions be put to him about his work or his thought, and his answers are as clear, sharp and decisive as those of any man I ever knew. There is no aggressiveness or self assertiveness, but a definiteness and clarity that show he has thought long and deeply and come to all his conclusions for himself, yet he has the spirit of a boy.

SUSPECT JAPAN OF PURPOSE TO CLOSE COREA TO OTHER POWERS.

Seoul, Corea, Sept. 27.—In all of her treaties and her representations to other governments, Japan has given repeated assurance that she will preserve in Corea the principle of the open door and of equal opportunity for the commerce and capital of other nations on exactly the same footing as for Japanese commerce and capital. With this assurance the other powers have agreed to her having a free hand here.

In the matter of tariffs there has apparently been no discrimination. In the discussion of the "open door" a tendency is often manifested to restrict its application to the narrow field of tariff duties. The treaty provisions and official assurances of open door and equal opportunity have a wider scope. These mean not only that the tariff duties upon imports shall be exactly the same, no matter whence the imported goods may come, but they mean that there shall be absolute equality of treatment under the laws of Corea for the citizens and subjects of other governments with the subjects of Japan.

SCOURGED WITH SCROFULA

A REVOLTING CONDITION CURED

BY A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

Can any better evidence be produced of a marvelous curative agent than the plain, straightforward letter from one who took the PALMER SUCCESS SKIN AND BLOOD TREATMENT on faith and has retained the faith after a permanent cure has been effected?

There is nothing miraculous about this achievement—nothing but the result of progressive science. It is accomplished every day by the PALMER SYSTEM OF SKIN AND BLOOD TREATMENT.

To those doubters who still need to be convinced, the following authentic testimony is given:

"I wish to raise my voice with the great chorus in praise of the Palmer 'SUCCESS' Treatment. For 23 years I was scourged with Scrofula, and all remedies tried proved failures until your infallible remedies were brought to my notice. My case was a stubborn one and it required radical treatment. After becoming acquainted with the disposition of your ointment, I soon learned that it contained a business proposition, even from the first application. You may rest assured its merits were tested, and it did its work well. My left cheek resembled a piece of liver, and after using the ointment in conjunction with the soap and blood remedy it seemed as though beneath the skin a living nest of worms had been stirred up in revolt. But after persistent treatment the disease commenced to yield, and finally a complete cure resulted. I can conscientiously recommend this treatment to all persons afflicted with skin diseases, after what it has accomplished for me—Zebulon Jacobs, Guard at Utah State Prison, Salt Lake City, Utah."

THE PALMER SYSTEM OF TREATMENT is safe, certain, pleasant and the nominal cost places it within the reach of all. It typifies the great progress made in medical science in the most progressive scientific era. It is indispensable in all cases of Eczema, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Erysipelas, Acne, Scall, Pimples, Blackheads, Ringworm, Tetter, Itch, and Oak Poisoning, Itching Affections, Piles, Burns, Bruises and Sores, also Constipation and all Liver and Blood Disorders.

rhubarb. Here is the popular pie-plant, with stalks two inches thick and growing all the time, winter and summer, so that the ubiquitous pie may be made fresh from the garden all the year round.

Gorgeous Creations.

Are you interested in flowers? Then come and look at these gorgeous and splendid creations. Here are poppies, bed after bed of them, all under test. This last bed is about fifty feet square, and there are about 2,000 plants in it. Here are poppies the like of which were never seen before since the world began—hybrids, the results of crossings upon which Mr. Burbank has been working for years. There are no two alike. The leaves are wonderfully diverse, and the whole foliage and blossoms bewilder us by their strange diversity.

Some of these poppies are vast in size. Seven of them placed side by side vertically are as tall as a tall man, eight as high as a giant, and one could hide completely behind a dozen of them. In color they are a mass of crimson and black and white, with many intermediate blendings, and, unlike the ordinary poppy, which blossoms only for two or three weeks, these are perennials and flower all the time.

The amaryllis also shows the marvelous life power of his work. In a few years he has developed it from a small flower with a few inches of breadth to nearly a foot in diameter, with every shade of crimson, pink or scarlet and many astonishing color combinations.

Whole Plant Changed.

But to do this the whole plant, bulb, stem and leaves, had to be changed. It seems like magic to the ordinary mind to see the gradual transformation of a small bulb to one four times its size and five or more times its weight and with its power of multiplication increased eight to ten fold. To watch the development or creation of a new stem is equally magical. The old amaryllis stem could never have 10,000 become 50,000 or 100,000 of 500,000 before he gets what he wants. It is this large dealing that has differentiated Mr. Burbank's plans from those of other men.

He speedily learned that great results are not to be obtained from inadequate methods. The 10,000 daisy seeds were only a starter. Millions and millions of daisies were grown from these seeds, and it was only after the experiments were completed and the habits of the Shasta permanently fixed that the experimental plants were destroyed.

In vegetables he has produced equally wonderful results. As elsewhere related, the potato that bears his name was his first achievement. Tomatoes, forage plants, sugar beets have felt his magic touch to the great enrichment of the world.

In fruits his labors are startling. He has made a giant plum, rich and delicious in flavor, juicy, hardy, a prolific bearer and the largest known. His prune is full of sugar, larger, earlier and more productive than the best of the old varieties. He wedded the plum and the apricot and has given to the world the plumcot, which combines the hardiness of the plum with the rich deliciousness of the apricot.

Pineapple Flavored Quince.

The same process has given us a quince with the flavor of the pineapple, thus increasing the fruit value of the former. He is working on the black-berry, and we shall ultimately receive at his hands a large, rich, luscious berry two or three inches in length, almost seedless, with thornless bushes and a flavor rich and delicate.

On his proving grounds experiments by the hundreds of thousands are going on all the time, some of them not completed, though they were begun twenty and even thirty years ago.

Luther Burbank's early life in California was attended by many hard experiences. He was very poor and was obliged to take any work that came to hand. He cleaned out chicken coops, helped in market gardens, got an odd

One of the pleasant social events of the season occurred last Thursday at the beautiful country residence of Mrs. Margaret Allbaugh (the occasion being the first annual reunion of the Berger family. At an early hour the guests began to arrive and by 11 o'clock the number had reached about two hundred. The forenoon was spent in a general social time till about twelve o'clock when the old dinner bell announced there was something doing—on to be done. The company assembled to do justice to the culinary skill of the good matrons and misses, who did themselves proud in the way of providing the good things. In the afternoon a very pleasing address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Steukenberg of Newark, after which was the ball game between the married men and the single men which resulted in an overwhelming defeat of the single men—the score being 35 to 29. All departed in the evening, hoping we may all meet again next year.

NEWARK TELEPHONE CO. IN GOOD CONDITION

The financial editor of the Columbus Dispatch says: At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Newark Telephone company, held at Newark, O., the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. on the common stock of the company was authorized to be paid October 1, to all common stockholders of record September 30. The company is capitalized for $60,000 common stock, and $90,000 preferred stock, the former drawing dividends at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, payable quarterly, and the latter at 6 per cent. payable semi-annually.

The affairs of the company were found to be in a very flourishing condition, having gross earnings of about $4,600 a month, and operating expenses including insurance and taxes of $2,500.

The number of telephone instruments in service has increased during the last four years from about 600 to over 3,000, and the system is still showing a net increase of about 40 telephones per month with no solicitation.

JOHNSTOWN JOTTINGS

Green-Perfect Wedding—New K. of P. Hall About Ready—Marriage Anniversary.

Johnstown, Sept. 27.—A home wedding was solemnized at 2 o'clock p. m. Wednesday at the beautiful country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Green when their daughter Lola E. was given in marriage to Mr. Frank Perfect of near Croton. They were married in the presence of a few of the near relatives of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. McDaniel of Alexandria. The bride is an accomplished and esteemed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Green. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perfect, also wealthy farmers who live near Croton and is an industrious young man, highly respected. They expect to make their future home on a farm near Croton.

Squire James J. Hill united in marriage James W. Martindale to Miss Maud Blamer, Sunday, September 22, at noon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hannah Blamer. The groom is a son of James Martindale, deceased.

The 24th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Shrader was celebrated at their home Wednesday. It was an all day event, a very delightful dinner prepared for the occasion being served at noon to the twenty-five or more guests in attendance. The affair was in the nature of a surprise to Mr. Shrader as he was told by his wife that she was expecting some company on that day but he never thought of so many nor that they were coming for that purpose.

The new K. of P. hall will be ready for house warming on Thursday evening, Oct. 3. For over a month it has been undergoing a fresco treatment. There will be refreshments and one of the most important meetings in the history of old White Cross on October 3.

Mrs. Relia Crammer of Dayton, who has been here for several days visiting relatives, visited friends in Newark and Pataskala this week. She will return to Dayton Friday and will be accompanied by Miss Nina Harris who will spend about one week with her at her home.

Henry Ealy and wife of Newark, visited from Saturday until Monday with Wm. Edgerly and family.

HAIR IS SINGED IN FIGHTING FIRE

Prompt Work of Firemen Prevented
Big Blaze at J. A. Black's Premises Thursday.

An alarm of fire sent in at 4:40 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, called the Central truck and the North End company to a barn that was burning on the premises of J. A. Black, 231 Woods avenue. The firemen were on the spot in an incredibly short time and soon put out the blaze, which was confined principally to the upper part of the barn. Parties had been engaged in disinfecting a chicken-coop adjacent to the barn by burning a fire in it and smoking it. The result was that the flames communicated to some loose straw and worked its way up into the hay mow. The loss will amount to about $40, which is covered by insurance. Mr. J. A. Black, the owner, had his hair and mustache singed while fighting the fire.

Rheumatism.

How much misery there is in that word! Only those who have suffered from it can understand its tortures. And yet so few understand its cause. Simply the failure of the kidneys to remove the uric acid from the blood. Relief is now within the reach of all.

A formula, that for the last ten years has been dispensed by physicians all over the country in cases where troubles arising from disordered kidneys were indicated, is now being distributed through the druggists by the Antiseptic Remedy Co., at South Bend, Ind., and we have been appointed distributing agents for this vicinity.

The name of this remedy is Lantz's Red Kidney Pillets, and the price is 50 cents a box.

So confident is the Antiseptic Remedy Co. in the virtue of this great formula for the relief of rheumatism that it has furnished us with free trial boxes to give to all those who are suffering from rheumatism or from any form of kidney or bladder trouble.

Please call for a trial box. We are confident you will be benefited.

New York Sept. 27.—Gunda immediately threw the money on the floor and paced disgustedly up and down his cage in the elephant house in the Bronx Zoological Gardens.

"Why don't you put it in the bank?" I inquired.

"It was the fifth without sugar," he replied. "If I was permitted to talk for publication I might explain my reasons but what's the use? They would only call you a nature faker and any interview I might give might be repudiated direct from Washington. But all the same it is the fifth without sugar."

Gunda at the top of his cage has a large box with a cover in which he is supposed to put all the pennies he gets and attached to it is a bell which he has been trained to ring every time he deposits a coin.

Gunda the elephant financier collects between $2 and $3 every week which is divided among the three keepers in the house in which he dwells in order to keep him in the collecting humor. However, the keepers have to see that he gets something that he likes to eat, for otherwise every fourth or fifth coin he gathers he will throw the money back at the donors. The beast will faithfully deposit the money in the bank, which is placed on top of his cage and ring the bell attached to it as long as there is a saccharine reward coming. When there is no prospect of any he closes the bank.

Dr. Wm. T. Hornaday, director of the Bronx Zoological Garden, has a collection of strange coins which Gunda has taken in through his financial operations.
